JOE MOORHEAD

Second Season
@BallCoachJoeMo

33RD HEAD FOOTBALL COACH
2016 & 2017 NATIONAL OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR OF THE YEAR

When Mississippi State Director of Athletics John Cohen was charged with identifying the Bulldogs' 33rd head football coach, he was looking for a man with a pedigree as a winner, an innovator with a blue-collar work ethic and at the forefront, a 'ball coach.' From the beginning of the search, Joe Moorhead was the unequivocal leader. Moorhead, the 2016 and 2017 National Offensive Coordinator of the Year and the mastermind behind Penn State's offensive juggernaut, enters his second season in Starkville in 2019. Officially named head coach on November 29, 2017, Moorhead became just the second MSU head coach to win eight or more games in his debut season and the first since College Football Hall of Famer Allyn McKeen in 1939. The 45-year-old played a pivotal role in conference championships at his four previous coaching stops, including Penn State (2016), Fordham (2014), Connecticut (2010) and Akron (2005).

In his short time in Starkville, the Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, native has already made a marvelous impact, securing a Top 25 national ranking, a New Year's Day bowl berth, multiple Top 25 recruiting classes, forming relationships around the state of Mississippi and developing a 'good to great' attitude within the program.

Moorhead's second season at MSU will be his 22nd in collegiate coaching and his sixth as a head coach. He owns a 46-18 (.719) overall head coaching record and a 15-5 (.750) mark in conference games.

StarkVegas Impact

Behind one of the SEC's most potent rushing attacks and the nation's No. 1 defense, Moorhead's first State squad defeated two top-20 teams by double digits, won four out of its last five regular-season games and qualified for a school-record ninth-consecutive bowl. The Bulldogs dominated then-No. 8 Auburn, 23-9, on Oct. 6, while quarterback Nick Fitzgerald accounted for 329 yards of total offense as State put away then-No. 16 Texas A&M, 28-13, on Oct. 28.

MSU reclaimed the historic Golden Egg trophy when the Bulldogs throttled rival Ole Miss, 35-3, on Thanksgiving night in Oxford. It represented the largest margin of victory by a first-year MSU head coach in Egg Bowl history. The win also propelled State to a berth in its first-ever Outback Bowl, representing the program's second-most prestigious bowl this decade. Moorhead became just the second coach in Bulldog history to reach a bowl game in his first season, joining Jackie Sherrill's 1991 squad.

State held eight of its opponents to their lowest point total of the season, including then-No. 1 Alabama, No. 10 Florida and No. 16 Texas A&M. Moorhead's first Bulldog team secured the program's second-highest finish ever in the College Football Playoff rankings at No. 18, as well as a No. 25 ranking in the final Coaches poll.

For only the second time in program history and the first since 2000, MSU produced four All-Americans led by first-teamers defensive end Montez Sweat and center Elgton Jenkins as well as safety Johnathan Abram and defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons. Under Moorhead's guidance, Fitzgerald secured his place as one of the best dual-threat quarterbacks in SEC history as he became the conference's all-time leading quarterback rusher in addition to shattering 13 school records. Six players also earned All-SEC distinction for their year-long performance.

The Bulldogs then made a major impact in the winter and spring of 2019. A school-record eight MSU players were invited to the NFL Combine. In April, three Bulldogs were called in the first round of the 2019 NFL Draft – a first in program history – as Simmons went No. 19 overall (Tennessee), Sweat went No. 26 (Washington) and Abram followed at No. 27 (Oakland). State's three first-round selections tied with Clemson and Alabama for the most in the nation. MSU finished with a three-day total of five draft selections, including Jenkins going in the second round to Green Bay and Gerri Green being chosen by Indianapolis in the sixth round. The four defensive picks were the most in a single draft in school history. An additional seven other Bulldogs signed free agent contracts, including Fitzgerald with Tampa Bay.

Moorhead's recruiting prowess has been evident as well. A year after signing the nation's No. 25 class after just a few weeks on the job, he hauled in the No. 24 ranked class in the spring of 2019 highlighted by the signing of Charles Cross, the first five-star offensive lineman prospect in MSU history and first overall offensive five star since 2002. Moorhead's 12 four-star or greater signees were the most in a two-year span at MSU since at least 2000 when recruiting database rankings began.

Off the field, Moorhead's group has been model citizens in the community and classroom. A total of 32 Bulldogs were recognized on the SEC Academic Honor Roll in his first season. The same fall as State finished in the Top 25 of the final polls, the Bulldogs posted the highest team GPA on record with a 2.84, as five student-athletes earned a perfect 4.0.

Penn State's Offensive Explosion

Moorhead received national acclaim during the 2016 and 2017 seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach on James Franklin's Penn State staff. Tabbed as Sports Illustrated and Yahoo's No. 1 rising assistant in college football in August 2017, Moorhead transformed the Nittany Lions offensively and spearheaded them to a combined 21-5 record, a 17-3 mark in Big Ten regular season play, the 2016 Big Ten championship, two New Year's Six bowls and back-to-back Top 10 national rankings.

Explosive, balanced offenses have been a trademark of Moorhead at every stop of his career. Penn State scored at least 30 points in 21 of the 26 games he coached, and averaged 39.4 points per game during that span.

The 2017 campaign saw the Nittany Lions rank in the top 25 nationally in seven different offensive categories, including seventh in points per game (41.1), fifth in third down conversion percentage (48.0), 14th in passing efficiency (153.6), 17th in yards per play (6.55), 19th in total offense (460.3), 23rd in passing yards per game (290.2) and 21st in red zone conversion percentage (89.8). They also produced four 50-point games, representing the most in a Penn State season since 1994.

For the second time in his career, Moorhead was recognized as the National Offensive Coordinator of the Year during a Nittany Lions' season that was capped with a Fiesta Bowl berth and school records for passing yards (3,772) and points scored (534). Individually in 2017, three of Moorhead's players received All-America status, while eight were tabbed either first-team, second-team, or honorable mention All-Big Ten.

Moorhead's expertise was evident in the development of quarterback Trace McSorley and running back Saquon Barkley. Together they formed one of the elite backfields in all of college football. McSorley, a finalist for the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, became just the second player in Big Ten history to register 25 passing touchdowns and 10 rushing scores in a single season. He also was the first player in program history to produce multiple seasons of 3,000 yards passing. Barkley, a consensus All-American and the first running back in Big Ten history to claim multiple conference Offensive Player of the Year honors, ranked second nationally in all-purpose yards in 2017 (2,329). He broke four school career records, including rushing touchdowns (43), total touchdowns (53), all-purpose yards (5,538) and consecutive games with a touchdown (15) in just three seasons.

Four of Moorhead's offensive players heard their names called in the first four rounds of the 2018 NFL Draft, while an additional three were called in the 2019 NFL Draft. Barkley led the way as the No. 2 overall selection in 2018, becoming the highest drafted Nittany Lion in 19 years and the highest drafted running back overall since Reggie Bush in 2006. Barkley went on to earn 2018 NFL Rookie of the Year honors. All-American Mike Gesicki followed with the 42nd overall pick in the second round, making him the highest drafted Penn State tight end since 1995. Wide receiver DaeSean Hamilton was a fourth round selection. In addition, Fordham running back Chase Edmonds, recruited and coached by Moorhead for two seasons, was a fourth round selection. McSorley was selected in the sixth round of the 2019 NFL Draft by Baltimore.

The 2016 season saw Moorhead earn National Offensive Coordinator of the Year honors by 247Sports, a year in which the Nittany Lions claimed their first outright Big Ten championship in two decades and berth in the Rose Bowl. They reeled off nine

Joe Moorhead became just the second MSU head coach to win eight or more games in a debut season, joining College Football Hall of Famer Allyn McKeen. Moorhead's 2018 squad led the nation and the SEC in total defense (263.7) and ranked second in the SEC in rushing offense (223.6). The Bulldogs reached their first-ever Outback Bowl in the process.

straight conference victories and finished the year 11-3 highlighted by triumphs over No. 2 Ohio State and No. 6 Wisconsin.

In Moorhead's first season, Penn State shattered then-school records for total offense (6,056), passing yards (3,650) and points scored (526). The Nittany Lions improved their scoring average by a staggering 14.4 points from 2015 to 2016, which ranked fourth nationally. They racked up 30 or more points in 11 games, which was the most since the 1994 squad.

The results were astounding for an offense that just a year prior to his arrival finished No. 100 nationally in scoring and No. 105 in total offense. Penn State leaped 79 spots to No. 21 in scoring offense in Moorhead's first season.

McSorley, in his first season under Moorhead, threw a school-record 29 touchdown passes en route to earning All-Big Ten second team honors, Big Ten Championship Game MVP and Maxwell Club Tri-State Player of the Year. Barkley was tabbed as the Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year, the first for a Nittany Lion in 12 years.

Head Coach in the Bronx

Moorhead is no stranger to building and maintaining a program as a head coach. Prior to his stint at Penn State, he posted a 38-13 record as head coach at Fordham University from 2012-15. After inheriting a program that went 1-10, he steadily built the Rams into a Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) powerhouse, leading them to their best season in program history in 2013 and the Patriot League title in 2014. They reached the FCS playoffs in three straight seasons under his watch.

During his tenure, Moorhead produced the highest ranking in program history (No. 5 in 2013), the highest final ranking in program history (No. 9 in 2013 and 2014), the first two wins over FBS schools in program history and the first two wins over top 10 opponents in school history.

Moorhead guided the 2014 Jerry Rice Award winner for the NCAA FCS Rookie of the Year, three consecutive Patriot League Offensive Players of the Year, 11 All-Americans, five CoSIDA Academic All-Americans and 55 All-Patriot League performers (37 first team, 18 second team) while with the Rams. Fordham was consistently one of the top offensive teams in the FCS and set 16 school records (individual and team) in 2013 and 2014.

In 2014, Moorhead led the Rams to their first Patriot League title since 2007 with a perfect 6-0 mark in league play and an 11-3 record overall.

In one of the most impressive feats in school history, Moorhead guided the Rams to a 12-2 record in 2013, which included the program's first win over an FBS opponent (Temple) and the school's first two wins over top 10 opponents (Villanova, Lehigh). For his efforts, Moorhead was named the 2013 AFCA Regional Co-Coach of the Year and Patriot League Coach of the Year. He was also a finalist for the Eddie Robinson Award and the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year.

The Early Years

Before returning to take the helm at his alma mater, Moorhead spent three seasons at Connecticut, including two as the offensive coordinator. He served as the offensive coordinator in 2009 and 2010, leading a unit that was second in the BIG EAST Conference in scoring offense and rushing offense in 2010, as the Huskies won the conference title and appeared in the Fiesta Bowl against Oklahoma. Following the season, running back Jordan Todman was named second-team All-America and BIG EAST Offensive Player of the Year. Additionally, two other offensive players were named first-team All-BIG EAST with Todman (San Diego/sixth round) and Anthony Sherman (Arizona/fifth round) being selected in the NFL Draft.

In 2009, UConn finished the season as the third-most productive offense in the BIG EAST, and was second in scoring as Moorhead was nominated for the Frank Broyles Award, presented annually to the top assistant coach in the NCAA FBS. The Huskies finished the season 8-5 and defeated South Carolina in the PapaJohns.com Bowl.

Prior to his stay at Connecticut, Moorhead served as an assistant coach at Akron for five years (2004-08), including the final two as offensive coordinator. In 2008, Akron was one of 17 schools nationally to be ranked among the top 50 in rushing offense (45th; 165.7 ypg), passing offense (46th; 231.50), total offense (40th; 396.97) and scoring offense (36th; 30.0 ppg).

Akron was the most improved school in the nation in 2008 in total offense, and it was the sixth-most improved in scoring offense. In the Mid-American Conference (MAC), Akron was third in points per game and turnover margin (plus 0.5) and fourth in rushing yards per game. Moorhead served as the assistant head coach, pass game and recruiting coordinator on Akron's only conference championship team in the program's 120-plus year history in 2005. The Zips claimed the Mid-American Conference Eastern Division title and then topped Northern Illinois, 31-30, in the MAC Championship Game to secure the squad's first-ever bowl appearance.

The Quarterback, Family Man

As a collegiate student-athlete at Fordham, Moorhead was a three-year starter at quarterback and a team captain as a senior. He was a second-team All-Patriot League pick as a senior, finishing 13th nationally in total offense. He graduated with school single-season records for completions and passing yards. Following his collegiate career, Moorhead spent time in the training camp of the Milwaukee Mustangs of the Arena Football League after playing the 1996 season for the Munich Cowboys of the E.F.A.F.

Moorhead received an English degree from Fordham in 1996. He and his wife, Jennifer, have three children: daughter Kyra (18), son Mason (16) and son Donovan (12). Moorhead, an avid Pittsburgh Steelers and Pirates fan, and his family are active members of the Starkville community.

WHAT THEY SAID ON MOORHEAD'S HIRING ...

"Over the last decade, Mississippi State University has built a winning football tradition that has taken our program to unprecedented heights. My charge to Athletics Director John Cohen was to find a dynamic, innovative new head coach for the Bulldogs who could embrace that winning tradition and build on it. In Coach Joe Moorhead, I think we have found that leader. I'm excited about having Joe, his wife Jennifer, sons Mason and Donovan, and daughter Kyra join our Bulldog family. I have great confidence in Coach Moorhead's commitment to competitive athletic achievement, academic excellence, and consistent integrity in the operation of all phases of our football program."
- MSU President Dr. Mark Keenum

"During our search, it became unequivocally clear who our next football coach was and that man was Joe Moorhead. Joe is a winner, a man of integrity with a blue-collar work ethic and an ability to motivate others that our student-athletes will gravitate to. His innovative offensive philosophy is a perfect fit for our program and will keep us on a path to competing for championships. I was also impressed with his detailed defensive plan. He will demand excellence on and off the field and maximize the resources we have to continue to be successful in the SEC. We are proud to welcome Joe, his wife Jennifer, his daughter Kyra and sons Mason and Donovan to the Bulldog Family."
- MSU Director of Athletics John Cohen

"We couldn't be happier for Joe Moorhead and his family. This is a tremendous opportunity for him to return to being a head coach and continue to move forward in his career. We are so appreciative of everything that he has done for Penn State Football in his two years. Joe's combination of leadership, X's and O's, and, most importantly, positive attitude brought the best out of our very talented offensive student-athletes. He has been a great mentor and coach to our student-athletes and friend to me and our staff. We wish Joe nothing but success at Mississippi State.
- Penn State Head Coach James Franklin

"Joe Moorhead is one of the best offensive minds in all of college football. He has head coaching experience at the collegiate level, and is ready to shine with an opportunity like this one at Mississippi State."
- Todd Blackledge, ESPN

"Joe Moorhead was one of the best production meetings our crew had all year. You can see why players love him. Highly intelligent and fun scheme to watch in my preparation. Looking forward to seeing what he can do at Mississippi State."
- Brady Quinn, Fox Sports analyst and eight-year NFL quarterback

"I'm a huge fan of this hire. Joe Moorhead is fun and easy to like. Fans will enjoy him as will players. Plus, he reinvented the read-option and made it a blast to watch."
- Laura Rutledge, ESPN

PENN STATE JUGGERNAUT

Joe Moorhead, the two-time National Offensive Coordinator of the Year, was the catalyst for Penn State's offensive explosion in 2016 and 2017. Moorhead's innovative offensive system shattered school records and helped produce seven offensive NFL Draft picks. Penn State claimed the 2016 Big Ten Championship, its first since 2008.

Mississippi native Deke Adams has returned to his home state to serve as Mississippi State's defensive line coach, Bulldogs head coach Joe Moorhead announced on January 30, 2019.

A native of Meridian, Mississippi, and a former standout linebacker at Southern Miss, Adams served the last two seasons as defensive line coach at North Carolina in what was his second stop in Chapel Hill. He came to MSU after a short stint at Memphis, where he had been named defensive line coach in early January.

A 20-plus year coaching veteran who has played a key role in the development of six NFL draft selections since 2013, including two first-round picks, Adams first joined the UNC staff in 2012 as the defensive line coach under head coach Larry Fedora. He coached All-American defensive tackle Sylvester Williams, who was selected 28th overall by the Denver Broncos in the 2013 NFL Draft. The Tar Heels ranked third in the ACC with 97 tackles for loss, and Adams' group was responsible for 40 of them. Williams and Kareem Martin were one of the ACC's most dominant defensive line duos, combining for 29 TFLs. Martin ranked third in the conference with 15.5, while Williams finished sixth with 13.5.

Adams spent the 2016 season as East Carolina's defensive line coach. Prior to ECU, he worked under Steve Spurrier for three years at South Carolina (2013-15) and helped guide the Gamecocks to a pair of bowl wins in 2013 and 2014.

At South Carolina, Adams coached defensive end Jadeveon Clowney, the No. 1 overall pick in the 2014 NFL Draft. Adams' unit also featured defensive tackle Kelcy Quarles, who was both a first-team All-SEC and All-America choice with Clowney. Quarles and Clowney became the first South Carolina duo since Del Wilkes and James Seawright to earn All-America honors in the same season.

During the 2017-18 seasons at UNC, Adams was instrumental in developing a young Tar Heel defensive line into a strength of the unit.

Before his first stop at North Carolina, Adams spent the 2009-11 seasons at his alma mater Southern Miss as defensive line coach on Fedora's staff. Among the players he developed were first-team All-Conference USA defensive end Cordarro Law and second-round 2013 NFL Draft pick Jamie Collins. During his first season in Hattiesburg in 2009, Adams inherited a young, but talented unit that improved throughout the season. The Golden Eagle defense finished the season ranked 18th nationally in sacks and 24th in tackles for loss after checking in at 93rd and 68th, respectively, in those two categories a season prior.

Adams' final season with the Golden Eagles in 2011 saw his front four allow only 112.6 rushing yards per game, which ranked 22nd in the nation. He helped Southern Miss to the Conference USA title and a 12-win season after a Hawaii Bowl victory over Nevada.

Prior to Southern Miss, he coached linebackers at Louisiana-Monroe, while also serving as the coordinator of player development. Prior to his time at Louisiana-Monroe, he spent the 2006 and 2007 seasons at North Carolina A&T.

Adams was elevated to interim defensive coordinator during his first season at North Carolina A&T after two games, before earning the job on a permanent basis following the final contest.

He coached the Aggies' defensive line in 2006 and had responsibility for the linebackers in 2007 in addition to his coordinator duties.

Adams spent the previous four years at Ouachita Baptist (Ark.) University (2002-05), coordinating the defense and coaching the defensive line in his last season.

He coached in the junior college ranks at Pearl River (Miss.) Community College from 1998-2002, serving as the linebackers coach during his first three seasons before he was named co-defensive coordinator and secondary coach in addition to his role as recruiting coordinator in 2001.

Adams began his coaching career in 1997 as the defensive line coach at Jacksonville (Ala.) State.

A three-year letterman, Adams played a key role as part of the Golden Eagles' "Nasty Bunch" defense. He wrapped up his collegiate career in 1994 with 76 tackles, 5.0 tackles for loss, 1.0 sack and one interception.

In the classroom, he was a four-year member of the Southern Miss Dean's List. He earned his bachelor's degree in psychology and sports administration in 1995 before following with a master's degree, also from USM, in 1996.

Adams is married to the former Alexis Hall, a member of the 1,000-point club and four-year letterwinner for the Southern Miss women's basketball team. The couple has two sons, Jaylen and Jordyn.

Andrew Breiner and Joe Moorhead's coaching relationship dates back to their Connecticut days from 2009-11. The two reunite in Starkville as Breiner, the former Fordham head coach, serves as Mississippi State's pass game coordinator and quarterbacks coach. Moorhead officially announced the hiring on December 6, 2017.

In Breiner's first season at MSU, the Bulldogs passed for 2,259 yards and 22 touchdowns and were led by the SEC's all-time leading rusher at quarterback and owner of 13 school records in Nick Fitzgerald. One of the most decorated players in school history, Fitzgerald completed 145-of-281 passes for 16 touchdowns with nine interceptions as a senior in 2018. He was responsible for 29 touchdowns (13 rushing, 16 passing) and led all FBS quarterbacks in 100-yard rushing games (7).

Breiner, a native of Hummelstown, Pennsylvania, compiled a 12-10 record as the head coach at Fordham from 2016-17, including an 8-3 mark in his first year. The eight victories were the most for a first-year head coach in the modern Fordham era. Breiner was promoted to head coach after Moorhead departed for Penn State as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2015.

The two formed an explosive offense in the Bronx. Breiner was Moorhead's offensive coordinator at Fordham from 2012-15, and he was Moorhead's offensive graduate assistant at UConn for three seasons prior.

Under Breiner's tutelage in 2016, Fordham ranked fourth in the FCS in both total offense (498.2 ypg) and scoring offense (40.1 ppg). The Rams were also 10th nationally and second in the Patriot League in passing efficiency that season (156.0).

The 2016 Rams were commanded by consensus All-American running back Chase Edmonds, who finished fourth in voting for the 2016 Walter Payton Award, presented to the NCAA FCS offensive player of the year. Edmonds led the FCS in rushing yards per game (163.5), and he was second in total rushing yards as well as ranking second in all-purpose yards per game (194.6) and third in rushing touchdowns.

As Moorhead's offensive coordinator from 2012-15, Fordham ranked in the Top 10 of the FCS in nearly every category. In 2015, the Rams led the Patriot League and were ninth nationally in scoring (36.8 ppg). They led the league and were second in the FCS in passing efficiency (168.30).

Two members of the 2015 Fordham offense earned All-America honors, including Edmonds and lineman Garrick Mayweather, Jr. Edmonds was also named the 2015 Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year.

In the spring of 2018, Edmonds became the highest drafted Fordham player since 1943 when the Arizona Cardinals selected him in the fourth round (pick No. 134). Edmonds was the first Ram to be selected in the NFL Draft since 2010 and only the third Ram taken since 1968.

In 2014, the Fordham offense enjoyed another record-breaking season under Breiner's watch with seven offensive players earning All-America honors and 10 receiving All-Patriot League accolades. Quarterback Mike Nebrich was named Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year for the second straight season.

The 2014 Rams offense set school-record marks for rushing yards (2,353), points (569) and rushing touchdowns (31). Edmonds did most of the damage on the ground, gaining 1,838 yards with 23 touchdowns, both school records.

That same year under Moorhead and Breiner, Fordham ranked fourth nationally in passing offense (326.1), fifth in scoring offense (40.6), third in team passing efficiency (156.2), seventh in total offense (494.1) and ninth in first downs (331). For the second straight year, Fordham had a 1,000 rusher (Edmonds) and three 1,000-yard receivers (Brian Wetzel, Tebucky Jones, Jr., and Sam Ajala).

In 2013, Breiner's passing unit saw unparalleled success as it led the FCS in pass completion percentage (.706) with quarterback Mike Nebrich, the 2013 Patriot League Offensive Player of the Year. Fordham ranked first in the nation in pass completion percentage (.735) and total offense (376.4 ypg), and they were second in passing efficiency (171.3), third in passing yards (336.9 ypg), third in passing touchdowns (35) and third in completions per game (27.15). Nebrich set school single-season records for completions, passing yards and passing touchdowns.

With the success of the passing game came recognition of the Fordham wide receivers as Sam Ajala was named All-America and first-team All-Patriot League, as was tight end Dan Light, while Tebucky Jones, Jr., and Brian Wetzel were both named second-team All-Patriot League. Ajala set school records for most receiving yards in a season (1,646) and tied the record with 14 receiving touchdowns (as did Wetzel), while Light set the mark for most receptions in a season by a tight end (66).

In 2012, Breiner led a Fordham offense that ranked second in the Patriot League in scoring offense (31.2 ppg), passing offense (279.6 ypg) and total offense (435.7 ypg). Additionally, the Rams were ranked 18th in the FCS in passing offense as quarterback Ryan Higgins threw for 2,940 yards, the fourth-best single season for a Fordham quarterback in school history.

At Connecticut, Breiner worked with the offensive staff in all phases of research and development, coaching and game planning, as well as working individually with the quarterbacks and wide receivers in 2009 and 2010. He worked with the quarterbacks and running backs in 2011 and also had special teams responsibilities with the kickoff and kickoff return units.

Breiner was part of the staff that helped the Huskies to the 2010 BIG EAST championship and an appearance in the 2011 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl. In 2010, UConn appeared in the PapaJohns.com Bowl and received the Lambert Trophy, presented annually to the best team in the Northeast in Division I FBS college football.

Prior to his stay at UConn, Breiner was an assistant coach at Allegheny College in Meadville, Pennsylvania, for two seasons. He worked with the quarterbacks in 2008 and the wide receivers in 2007. He began his coaching career in 2006 at Lock Haven University, after he sustained a career-ending injury midway through his senior year and began working with the wide receivers.

A Dean's List student, Breiner graduated in 2006 from Lock Haven with a degree in health and physical education. He was a four-year letter winner with the Bald Eagles as a wide receiver and also played special teams. Breiner won a National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award from the Central Pennsylvania Chapter of the National Football Foundation for his accomplishments athletically, academically and in the community.

Breiner and his wife, Kelly, have one daughter, Abigail.

A Mississippian through and through, Terrell Buckley returned to his home state in 2016 as an assistant coach at Mississippi State. In 2019, Buckley enters his fourth season overseeing a very talented group of cornerbacks and second season working with the Bulldogs' special teams return men.

On January 7, 2019, Buckley was elected to the 2019 induction class for the College Football Hall of Fame by the National Football Foundation. He will be inducted at the 62nd NFF Annual Awards Dinner on Dec. 10 in New York and immortalized at the Hall in Atlanta.

Buckley, a 14-year NFL veteran and Super Bowl champion, was one of the most dynamic players in Mississippi history, guiding Pascagoula High School to a 1987 football state championship and undefeated season. He was inducted into the Pascagoula Athletic Hall of Fame in June 2018. He was born in Columbia, Mississippi, and spent most of his childhood in Gautier.

Buckley was instrumental in helping MSU haul in three-straight Top 25 recruiting classes. During his coaching tenure, Buckley has coached 13 players who have signed professional contracts, including most recently Jamal Peters (Indianapolis Colts) and 2018 NFL first rounder Jaire Alexander (Green Bay Packers).

Buckley's 2018 cornerbacks unit was part of arguably the most dominant defense in MSU history and in all of college football. Led by Associated Press second-team All-SEC selection Cameron Dantzler, Peters, Maurice Smitherman and Chris Rayford, State's cornerbacks did not allow a touchdown during the 2018 regular season.

The 2017 and 2018 seasons have been two of the best on record in terms of pass defense at MSU. Buckley's group spearheaded a Bulldog pass defense that was tops in the SEC and seventh nationally at 168.0 yards allowed per game. That figure was also the best by a State defense in 16 years when the 2002 squad allowed 153.9 yards per game passing. The Bulldogs allowed the fewest yards per passing attempt (5.5) in the nation and finished second in passer rating allowed (101.39). Dantzler, a preseason All-American for 2019, led MSU cornerbacks in 2018 with two interceptions.

In 2017, MSU allowed only 174.7 yards per game through the air, which ranked fourth in the SEC and 12th nationally. Buckley's squad of Lashard Durr, Tolando Cleveland, Peters, Rayford and Dantzler was rarely challenged. As a whole, the Bulldog defense ranked 10th nationally, allowing only 306.3 yards per game. MSU ranked fourth in the SEC in interceptions with 13, including a 90-yard pick six from Peters.

Buckley helped the Bulldogs claim nine victories for the third time in four years, and it culminated with an impressive victory against Louisville in the TaxSlayer Bowl. His disruptive unit forced 2016 Heisman Trophy winner Lamar Jackson into a career-high four interceptions, including one from Dantzler.

Despite a rash of injuries in the secondary in 2016, the Bulldogs ranked in the top tier of the league in interceptions with 14. Buckley's squad closed the year on a two-game winning streak, shutting down Ole Miss and Miami (Ohio) to capture the Egg Bowl and St. Petersburg Bowl, respectively.

Buckley spent the 2014-15 seasons coaching cornerbacks at Louisville and helping the Cardinals to back-to-back bowl appearances, including a Music City Bowl victory over Texas A&M in December 2015. In both of Buckley's seasons, Louisville led the Atlantic Coast Conference in interceptions and turnovers gained.

His two starting cornerbacks – Trumaine Washington and Shaq Wiggins - earned honorable mention All-ACC honors. Despite a young secondary in 2015, Louisville ranked 14th nationally in interceptions with 14. The Cardinals also led the league in turnovers gained (26, 20th nationally) and were second in the ACC in passes defended (66, 30th nationally).

In Buckley's first season of 2014, Louisville boasted one of the elite secondary's in all of college football. The Cardinals led the nation in interceptions with 26. As a unit, the squad ranked sixth nationally in total defense (308.5 ypg) and 11th nationally in turnovers gained (30). Buckley mentored corners Charles Gaines and Terell Floyd, both of whom inked NFL contracts following their collegiate careers.

Prior to Louisville, Buckley was a member of Terry Bowden's staff at Akron, coaching corners from 2012-13. Two of Buckley's players - Micklos Blake and Bryce Cheek - earned academic honorable mention honors from the Mid-American Conference.

Buckley got his coaching start after earning his undergraduate degree from Florida State in 2007. From 2008-11, he served in various assistant roles on Bobby Bowden and Jimbo Fisher's staffs. During his Seminole coaching days, he worked closely with Xavier Rhodes and Patrick Robinson, both first round draft choices. Rhodes is a two-time NFL Pro Bowler, while Robinson won a Super Bowl.

A two-year starter and three-year letterwinner as a cornerback and return specialist at FSU (1989-91), he was inducted into the school's sports hall of fame in 2003. He had his jersey No. 27 retired in 2011, and he is one of nine players in FSU history to earn that distinction.

Buckley left FSU as the program's all-time leader in interceptions (21) and interception return yards (501). He tied school records for touchdowns off interceptions (4) and punt returns (3). His interception return yardage still stands as an NCAA FBS record.

He earned consensus All-America honors as a junior in 1991 and won the Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back. That same season, he finished seventh in the voting for the Heisman Trophy.

Buckley was also a member of the Seminoles baseball team for two seasons (1990-91), playing outfield and second base, and was a sprinter on the outdoor track team (1991-92). He was picked fifth overall in the 1992 NFL Draft by the Green Bay Packers and spent the next 14 seasons in the league on six different teams (1992-2005).

During his NFL career, Buckley amassed 50 interceptions. In 1996, Buckley led the league in interception return yards (164) and, as a rookie in 1992, set what remains a current record as the youngest player to return a punt for a touchdown (21 years, 105 days - Sept. 20, 1992, versus Cincinnati). Buckley had at least one interception in 13 consecutive NFL seasons. As a member of the New England Patriots in the 2001 AFC Championship game, he tallied an interception in a 24-17 win over the Pittsburgh Steelers. Two weeks later, he added a championship ring to his collection when the Patriots won Super Bowl XXXVI over the St. Louis Rams in New Orleans, not far from his hometown.

Buckley has three daughters, Sherrell, Brianna and Britney.

The longtime Mississippian spent the last two-plus seasons in Jackson, Mississippi, as head coach at Jackson State University.

Hughes has a reputation as being one of the top recruiters in college football on an annual basis.

In 2015, 247Sports.com tabbed him as one of America's top 10 recruiters after the Bulldogs hauled in one of the nation's top 16 classes.

According to Rivals.com, the 22 National Letters of Intent MSU received on National Signing Day in 2015 made up the Bulldogs' best class since 2003. MSU hauled in five of Mississippi's top six players, including No. 1 (safety Jamal Peters of Bassfield) and No. 2 (linebacker Leo Lewis of Brookhaven). Fifteen of the Bulldogs' signees hailed from the state of Mississippi.

A teacher and mentor to his student-athletes, Hughes has excelled at identifying talent in the state of Mississippi that leaves MSU as five-star NFL prospects.

During his seven seasons at MSU, Hughes recruited and helped tutor some of the program's most storied players turned NFL stars including 2012 first-round draft pick defensive tackle Fletcher Cox – a Super Bowl Champion and three-time Pro Bowl selection – as well as second-round draft selections defensive end Chris Jones and 2017 Pro Bowl defensive back Darius Slay, along with 2012 Jim Thorpe Award winner Johnthan Banks and first-team All-American Benardrick McKinney. McKinney was once a two-star high school quarterback in Tunica, Mississippi, before being drafted by the Houston Texans in 2015. Hughes also recruited Gabe Jackson, one of the elite offensive linemen in MSU history (2010-13) and now starting right guard for the Oakland Raiders.

With Hughes on the coaching staff, the Bulldogs had unprecedented success in 2014 when they claimed 10 regular-season wins for the first time in school history and reached their first Orange Bowl since 1941. It was a season of firsts for the program, which spent five-consecutive weeks atop the national polls and closed the year with its highest Associated Press poll finish since 1940 at No. 11.

State's defense was dominant during the historic 2014 season, producing the top-ranked red-zone defense and ninth-ranked scoring defense in the country. Following that season, two of Hughes' safeties signed NFL free agent contracts, including his son, Jay, who was a team captain.

In 2013, Hughes' safeties unit helped the Bulldogs rank among the SEC's top five in a number of categories, including fourth in total defense (349.3 yards per game) and fifth in passing defense (205.2 yards per game). MSU also held its final three opponents to just 11.3 points per game.

Hughes first joined the Bulldogs in 2009 after spending one season at Southern Miss, where he coached the secondary. Before that, he coached for three seasons at Ole Miss. Named one of the top 25 college football recruiters in the nation by Rivals.com in the spring of 2006, Hughes' first two years were spent tutoring the defensive backs. He worked with tight ends during his final season in Oxford.

Prior to a two-season tenure at Louisiana Tech, Hughes spent the previous 10 years on the coaching staff at Hinds Community College in Raymond, Mississippi, where he served as the defensive coordinator for one year and the secondary coach during his first nine seasons. He coached eight players who later went on to the NFL, including former MSU standout Fred Smoot.

Before working at Hinds, Hughes' first college stop as a full-time collegiate coach was a two-year stay at West Alabama, where he was the secondary coach in 1992 and 1993. Hughes coached for seven years in the Mississippi high school ranks, serving as the offensive coordinator and running backs coach at Hattiesburg High School from 1988-1991. Hughes also spent two seasons as the defensive secondary coach and boys track coach at South Natchez High School in 1986 and 1987. His first high school coaching job came at Philadelphia High School in 1985.

After serving in the United States Marine Corps from 1981-84 and receiving an honorable discharge, he began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Southern Miss in 1984, working with the defensive backs.

Hughes, who played football and ran track at Forest High School (1974-76) and played defensive back at St. Paul's College (1976-77), was a defensive back for Southern Miss in 1977 and 1978. He earned his B.A. in sociology in 1980. He is an active member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, serving as a member of the Mississippi FCA State Board of Directors in 1999, president of the Mississippi FCA Coaches Council in 1998 and vice president of the Mississippi FCA Coaches Council in 1997.

Hughes is married to the former Marion McCaleb of Meridian, Mississippi, and the couple has two sons, Jamison and Jay.

Former NFL offensive lineman and Mississippi native Marcus Johnson made the return to his home state as offensive line coach for Mississippi State in 2018.

Johnson, a native of Coffeeville, Mississippi, played four NFL seasons and spent the last two years as the offensive line coach on David Cutcliffe's staff at Duke. Johnson joined the Duke staff in July of 2011. Prior to being promoted to head offensive line coach in February of 2016, Johnson worked two years (2011-12) as an assistant with the Blue Devils' strength and conditioning program. He then served in the capacity of offensive quality control for three seasons (2013-15).

His first season at MSU was a successful one as his offensive line helped the unit rank second in the SEC in both rushing yards per game (223.6) and yards per rush (5.7). Anchored by center Elgton Jenkins, the 44th overall pick by Green Bay in the 2019 NFL Draft, the offensive line paved the way for State to rush for 300 or more yards in an SEC-best four games.

One of the most versatile offensive linemen in MSU history, Jenkins was the recipient of the Kent Hull Trophy in 2018, awarded annually to the top offensive lineman in the state of Mississippi, and earned first-team All-America honors from The Athletic and fourth-team honors from Phil Steele. The second-highest drafted offensive lineman in school history, Jenkins played 773 total snaps, including 369 in pass protection, in 2018 according to Pro Football Focus. He did not allow a sack through the first nine games of the season and surrendered zero QB hits and only six total pressures throughout the year.

Also under Johnson's guidance, Deion Calhoun had a standout senior season in 2018, earning second-team All-SEC honors from the league's coaches. Calhoun allowed only two sacks over 356 pass-blocking snaps, according to PFF, and signed with Miami as an undrafted free agent.

In his seven seasons in Durham, he helped guide Duke to five bowl appearances from 2012-17. The Blue Devils had not appeared in a bowl game since 1995.

During the 2017 campaign, Johnson worked with third-team All-ACC center Austin Davis, who was also one of four team-elected captains. Johnson's offensive line opened holes for Duke to have two 200-200 performances as the Blue Devils reached the Quick Lane Bowl. Off the field, Johnson oversaw the selection of offensive tackle Gabe Brandner to the CoSIDA Academic All-District first team and Allstate AFCA Good Works Team, as well as being a semifinalist for the National Football Foundation William V. Campbell Trophy and Wuerffel Trophy. In 2016, Johnson oversaw an offensive front that allowed time and space for four 200-200 performances during the season.

During Johnson's three campaigns with the Blue Devil offense in the capacity of quality control, Duke won 27 games, captured the 2013 ACC Coastal Division championship and appeared in three bowl games. Working alongside veteran line coach John Latina, Johnson helped guide seven All-ACC picks including Casey Blaser, Takoby Cofield, Dave Harding, Lucas Patrick, Perry Simmons, Matt Skura and Laken Tomlinson.

Duke went 8-5 with a victory over Indiana in the New Era Pinstripe Bowl in 2015, and joined Clemson and North Carolina as the only three squads in the league to rank among the conference's top five in rushing offense, passing offense, total offense and scoring offense. Blaser, Patrick and Skura each garnered All-ACC honors.

In 2013, Duke ranked among ACC leaders in scoring (5th; 32.8 ppg), total offense (4th; 426.1 ypg), rushing offense (5th; 178.0 ypg) and passing offense (6th; 248.1 ypg).

On its way to the ACC Coastal Division championship, the Blue Devils set a school record for total points (459), while becoming the first team in school history to post 25-plus rushing touchdowns and 25-plus passing touchdowns in the same season.

Johnson lettered four seasons (2001-04) as an offensive lineman at Ole Miss under Cutcliffe, serving as team co-captain as a senior. He helped the Rebels to 28 wins over four years and a pair of bowl game appearances. After earning second-team All-SEC honors from the Associated Press as a senior, Johnson represented Ole Miss at the 2004 Senior Bowl.

A second round pick of the Minnesota Vikings in the 2005 NFL Draft, Johnson spent four seasons (2005-08) with the Vikings and helped the squad to the NFC North Division championship and a playoff berth in 2008. After spending the 2009 campaign with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, he closed his playing career with a stint with the Hartford Colonials of the United Football League.

Johnson graduated from Ole Miss in 2004 with a degree in criminal justice while minoring in sociology. He is married to Veullana Johnson and has one daughter, London.

Michael Johnson, a veteran in both the college and professional coaching ranks who spent the 2017-18 seasons at the University of Oregon, enters his first season in Starkville after being named Mississippi State's wide receivers coach on January 28, 2019.

Johnson boasts 16 years of experience coaching in college and the NFL. At the college level, in addition to coaching Oregon's wide receivers from 2017-18, he has worked at UCLA (2011) and Oregon State (1997-99). His NFL résumé includes stints with the San Francisco 49ers (2009-10), Baltimore Ravens (2006-07), Atlanta Falcons (2002-05) and San Diego Chargers (2000-01).

A proven recruiter who helped the Ducks land the No. 5 recruiting class during the December 2018 early signing period, Johnson's wide receivers unit in 2018 featured the best individual performance at the position in program history. Junior Dillon Mitchell finished with 75 catches for a single-season record 1,184 yards receiving, which also led the Pac-12, and 10 touchdowns. He was named second-team All-Pac-12 by both conference coaches and The Associated Press.

Prior to Oregon, Johnson was the head coach at The King's Academy from 2014-16 in Sunnyvale, California. At TKA, he coached his son Michael Jr., a highly ranked dual-threat quarterback who signed with Penn State during the early signing period last December.

Before TKA, Johnson spent two seasons as a player personnel director at North East Sports Consultants.

Johnson was hired at UCLA in 2011 to be the offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach after serving on the staff of the San Francisco 49ers during the 2009 and 2010 seasons. Under his leadership, senior wide receiver Nelson Rosario led the Bruins and ranked fifth in the Pac-12 with 1,161 yards to go along with 64 catches and five touchdowns. He helped guide the Bruins to an appearance in the first Pac-12 Championship Game and also served as the interim head coach in the Fight Hunger Bowl.

In 2010, Johnson was promoted to San Francisco's offensive coordinator under Mike Singletary after working as quarterbacks coach in 2009. He played a key role in the development of quarterbacks Shaun Hill and Alex Smith. The two combined for 23 passing touchdowns in 2009, marking the highest total in a single season by a 49ers signal caller since 2003. Hill started the first six games, but Smith earned his way back into the starting lineup after not having played a regular season game in two-plus years due to injury. Behind Johnson's guidance, Smith stepped in and recorded the best 10-game stretch of his career at the time, setting career highs in touchdown passes (18), completion percentage (.605) and quarterback rating (81.5).

Before his time with the 49ers, Johnson was the wide receivers coach for the Baltimore Ravens from 2006-07. With the Ravens, he helped veteran wideout Derrick Mason record his sixth 1,000-yard season in 2007. Mason led the Ravens in receiving yards (1,087), catches (103) and touchdown receptions (5). In 2006, wide receiver Mark Clayton developed into Baltimore's top playmaker, leading the team in receiving yards (939). Clayton also logged five touchdown catches, including three of 62 yards or more.

Johnson spent the four previous seasons with the Atlanta Falcons. He coached the quarterbacks from 2003-05, tutoring three-time Pro Bowl quarterback Michael Vick, and led the wide receivers unit in 2002. Vick passed for 2,412 yards and 15 touchdowns in 2005, while ranking second on the team with 597 rushing yards. Vick became the first NFL quarterback to throw for more than 250 yards and run for more than 100 yards in a single game at Denver during the 2004 season.

In 2003, Johnson was given the keys to the Falcons' offense for the final two games of the season. In those two contests, Vick recorded his second-highest quarterback rating of the year (119.2 at Tampa Bay and 93.0 at Jacksonville). Johnson tutored a young Falcons wide receiver group in 2002 that included Brian Finneran, who had the most productive season of his career, recording 833 yards on 56 receptions and six touchdowns.

Johnson got his first NFL job with the San Diego Chargers in 2000 as quarterbacks coach for Jim Harbaugh and Ryan Leaf. He also coached Doug Flutie to 3,476 passing yards in 2001, the most by a Chargers quarterback since Dan Fouts, and was instrumental in the development of then-rookie quarterback Drew Brees.

Following his professional playing career, Johnson began his coaching career at Oregon State. He coached wide receivers during his first two seasons and then quarterbacks in 1999, a season in which he helped guide the program to its first bowl game in 39 years.

A quarterback during his playing days, Johnson played four seasons in the World Football League and the Canadian Football League. He set numerous records as the starting quarterback at the University of Akron in 1988 and 1989, including being named the school's Athlete of the Year in 1989-90. Before Akron, Johnson played at Arizona State (1985-86) and Mesa Community College (1987).

Johnson and his wife Louan have one daughter, Taylor, and one son, Michael Jr. Louan is a former track and field student-athlete at USC (1987-91), and Taylor is currently a senior track and field student-athlete at Nebraska.

Joey Jones, the former South Alabama head coach who guided the Jaguars to 52 victories and two bowl appearances, begins his second season as special teams coordinator at Mississippi State. Head coach Joe Moorhead announced his hiring on February 22, 2018.

Jones' accomplishments were long and distinguished during his nine-year head coaching tenure with the Jaguars since the inception of the program in December 2007. USA produced 48 All-Sun Belt Conference recipients in his last six seasons, 23 professional players and 15 individuals who signed free-agent contracts with NFL teams.

Under Jones' guidance, MSU kicker Jace Christmann made 47-of-47 PAT attempts and was 12-for-16 on field goals in 2018. Christmann enters 2019 having made all 83 of his career PAT attempts. Punter Tucker Day was named to the 2018-19 ESPN All-Bowl team after punting five times for a career-high 50.4-yard average in the 2019 Outback Bowl. He had a career-long of 70 yards and had a 54-yarder that was downed inside the 15-yard line. State also allowed the second-fewest punt returns in the SEC in 2018 (7).

Jones' attention to special teams was evident in 2017 as USA ranked second nationally in ESPN.com's special teams efficiency rating (74.0) behind only Kansas State.

Jones led USA to wins in each of its first 19 contests, which including posting a 7-0 mark in the program's inaugural season of 2009 and a 10-0 record the following fall. He guided the Jags through the transition to the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision and competition in the Sun Belt Conference. After being picked to finish seventh out of eight teams prior to the start of the 2013 campaign, he was chosen the league's Coach of the Year for directing the Jaguars to a tie for third in the final standings.

In addition to helping USA to a winning conference record in 2014, Jones was responsible for leading the program to its first two bowl appearances — the 2014 Raycom Media Camellia Bowl and the 2016 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl.

The 2016 season saw the Jaguars tally two historic victories. USA defeated Mississippi State in Starkville for its first-ever win over a Southeastern Conference foe, and one month later the Jags picked up their initial victory over a nationally-ranked school with a 42-24 defeat of No. 19 San Diego State. Jones finished with a 52-50 record in his nine seasons at USA.

The Mobile, Alabama, native is no stranger to building programs from the ground up at both the high school and collegiate level in the South. He returned to his hometown after two years at Birmingham-Southern, where he was hired in 2006 to restart the school's football program. After spending a year overseeing administrative aspects of the program such as hiring assistant coaches, designing facilities and recruiting players for the Division III program, he led his 2007 squad of 126 freshmen to a 3-7 overall record, including a pair of wins over established junior-college programs.

Success has followed Jones throughout his career, both as a coach and as a player. Before moving into the collegiate ranks, he compiled an impressive 125-38 record in 13 years at the high-school level, including a 10-year run at Birmingham's Mountain Brook High, where he was 101-27 from 1996-2005.

After inheriting a program that had endured nine consecutive losing seasons, Jones directed the Spartans to the 1996 Class 6A State Championship Game, four region titles, two semifinal appearances and three quarterfinal appearances during his tenure.

In his second season with the Spartans, they won a postseason contest before falling in the second round in overtime, while his efforts helped MBHS reach the quarterfinals each of the next two falls. Jones led the program to a first-round victory in the 2001 postseason before helping the school return to the state semifinals a year later. In 2003, the Spartans reached the quarterfinals of the state playoffs, while they would go on to reach the semifinals the next season and win another first-round game in Jones' final year leading the program.

Jones began his head coaching career at Dora High School, where he registered a 24-11 mark in three seasons from 1991-93. It took just one year for him to lead the Bulldogs to postseason action, as they won a first round state 5A playoff contest before falling in overtime in 1992, while his efforts took the school to the quarterfinals the next season. From 1989-90, he served on the Briarwood Christian staff, helping the school to a berth in the quarterfinals of the state 3A playoffs his final year.

A 1989 graduate of Alabama with a degree in business administration, Jones became one of the most beloved Crimson Tide players during his tenure, which began under the tutelage of legendary coach Paul "Bear" Bryant. He finished his career with 71 receptions, 1,386 yards and 15 touchdowns, ranking fourth on the career touchdown receptions chart and seventh in career receiving yards. As a junior in 1982, Jones had eight touchdown receptions, which ranks tied for third in Alabama single-season history.

Jones earned All-SEC honors as a senior after hauling in 31 receptions for 468 yards and five scores. He was later selected to Alabama's All-Decade Team for the 1980s and played professionally with the Birmingham Stallions of the USFL and the NFL's Atlanta Falcons.

In April 2011, Jones was inducted into the Mobile Sports Hall of Fame.

Jones and his wife, Elise, have three children, Joe Jr., Jake and Caroline.

Chris Marve, one of the rising coaching stars in the country and a former Southeastern Conference standout, was tabbed as Mississippi State's defensive run game coordinator and linebackers coach on March 1, 2019.

Marve, who has been around SEC football his entire career, arrives in Starkville after serving as the inside linebackers coach at his alma mater Vanderbilt the past three seasons. In August 2018, ESPN.com named him to its 40 Under 40 list of ascending coaching stars. In 2017, 247Sports recognized Marve on its 30 Under 30 coaches list for rising stars in the profession, as well as its 35 Under 35 list.

Marve's unit performed at high level in 2018 with the Commodores. Senior Jordan Griffin registered 119 total tackles, which ranked second in the SEC and among the top 30 nationally. Meanwhile, Dimitri Moore topped all SEC freshmen in tackles with 84 en route to claiming Freshman All-SEC honors.

In 2017, Marve's top pupil -- Oren Burks -- ranked second on the team with 45 solo tackles and 82 total tackles. After the season, Burks was selected by Green Bay in the third round of the 2018 NFL Draft.

Zach Cunningham, Marve's top understudy in 2016, enjoyed one of the greatest seasons and careers ever by a Commodore.

He earned consensus first-team All-America recognition en route to arguably becoming the most decorated defender in program history. Cunningham, who topped the SEC with 125 total tackles as a senior, is now starting in the Houston Texans' linebacker corps after being taken No. 57 overall by the organization in the 2017 NFL Draft.

Marve joined the Commodore defensive staff in 2014, working as a quality control assistant. After focusing on linebackers as a graduate assistant in 2015, Marve was promoted to the inside linebacker position prior to the 2016 campaign.

Marve also helped Cunningham and fellow linebacker Nigel Bowden to banner campaigns in 2014-15. Cunningham earned first team All-SEC by posting 16.5 tackles for loss among 103 total stops. Bowden was a Freshman All-SEC selection in 2014 after registering 78 tackles.

Marve became one of the most decorated players in Vanderbilt history by garnering All-SEC accolades in each of his four years (2008-11). His performance on the field also helped the Commodores to postseason appearances in the 2008 Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl and the 2011 AutoZone Liberty Bowl

Marve quickly established himself on the defense, earning Freshman All-America and All-SEC honors in 2008 after registering 105 tackles and four forced fumbles. He capped the season with a 10-tackle performance in the Commodores' Music City Bowl victory over Boston College.

As a sophomore in 2009, Marve earned second-team All-SEC recognition from league coaches after posting career highs with 121 total tackles and 57 solo stops. He also averaged 10.1 tackles in conference play. In 2010, Marve again earned coaches' All-SEC honors as a junior defensive co-captain. That year, he finished with 80 tackles and 8.0 tackles-for-loss.

As a senior captain playing for Bob Shoop, Marve contributed 91 tackles, earned All-SEC recognition from coaches and The Associated Press, and was instrumental in leading the Commodores back to postseason play. Marve's final appearance came in his hometown at the AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

Marve ranks eighth on the team's career defensive charts with 397 total tackles. His career total of 28.0 tackles-for-loss ranks ninth all-time among Commodores.

Marve completed undergraduate degrees in sociology and human and organizational development in December 2011. He recently earned a Master's of Education in higher education administration from Vanderbilt's Peabody School.

Marve, a Memphis, Tennessee, native is married to the former Lauren Dillard, a fellow Vanderbilt graduate. He has one daughter, Rhyan Monroe.

Mississippi State head football coach Joe Moorhead announced January 22, 2019, the hiring of Terry Richardson as the program's new assistant head coach/run game coordinator and running backs coach.

Richardson, who boasts nearly 20 years of coaching experience, comes to Starkville after two seasons as the assistant head coach and running backs coach at Connecticut, a place where he and Moorhead worked together from 2009-10.

Richardson worked one season as running backs coach at Maryland in 2015 after spending the previous two seasons (2013-14) in the same role with the Jacksonville Jaguars. Prior to his two seasons with the Jaguars, he served as the University of Miami's running backs coach and recruiting coordinator for the state of Florida from 2011-12.

Richardson's first collegiate coaching position was at Connecticut, where he spent 12 seasons as running backs coach from 1999-2010. He began his coaching career at Northeast High School in Oakland Park, Florida, where he played high school football, as offensive coordinator and running backs in 1998.

During the 2018 season with the Huskies, Richardson led a unit that helped the offense average nearly 200 yards rushing per game and featured the program's first 1,000-yard rusher at running back since 2011 in Kevin Mensah.

Mensah grounded out 1,045 yards and six touchdowns and teamed with quarterback David Pindell, who rushed for 1,139 yards and 10 scores, to make Connecticut one of only five programs in the FBS with a pair of 1,000-yard rushers in 2018.

During Richardson's one season at Maryland in 2015, the Terrapins ranked third in the Big Ten in rushing yards per game (200.7) and tied for the league lead in 300-yard rushing games (3). The Terps also ranked second in the conference and 12th in the country in yards per carry (5.5). The running backs group was led by senior Brandon Ross, who totaled 958 rushing yards, 10 touchdowns and led the Big Ten in yards per rush (6.4).

Under Richardson's leadership, the Jaguars finished sixth in the NFL in 2014 in yards per carry (4.5). In 2013, Richardson's unit featured veteran Maurice Jones-Drew (803 yards), first-year pro Jordan Todman (256 yards) and 2013 fifth-round draft pick Denard Robinson (66 yards).

Under Richardson's direction at Miami, Duke Johnson and Lamar Miller registered two of the best seasons in the school's history by a running back. Johnson earned Freshman All-America honors in 2012 after rushing for a school freshman-record 947 yards and 10 touchdowns. He also earned Walter Camp All-America honors as a kick returner and was named the 2012 ACC Rookie of the Year.

In 2011, Miller finished with 1,272 rushing yards, the third-most in school history behind Willis McGahee (1,753) and Edgerrin James (1,416). Miller became only the eighth player in school history to top the 1,000-yard rushing barrier in a season and turned in seven games with 100 or more rushing yards.

During his first stint at Connecticut, Richardson coached Todman who was named the 2010 BIG EAST Offensive Player of the Year after he ranked second nationally in rushing yards per game (141.3). He also earned second-team All-America honors from the Walter Camp Foundation.

The Huskies ranked 35th in the nation in 2010 in rushing yards per game (174.7) and Richardson was a nominee for the Broyles Award, given to the nation's top college football assistant coaches.

In 2009, Richardson worked with a pair of 1,000-yard rushers in Todman (1,188) and All-BIG EAST second-team selection Andre Dixon (1,093). The Huskies were one of three FBS programs with a pair of 1,000-yard rushers.

The 2008 season saw running back Donald Brown become the nation's leading rusher with 2,083 yards. Brown was named the BIG EAST Offensive Player of the Year and a first-team All-American by Sporting News. He became the school's first NFL first-round draft pick in 2009 as he was selected by the Indianapolis Colts.

Richardson is a 1994 graduate of Syracuse where he was a four-year letterman at running back and wore number 44, a coveted jersey awarded to only exceptional Orange rushers, including Jim Brown and 1961 Heisman Trophy winner Ernie Davis. A native of Broward (Fla.) County, Richardson was Syracuse's leading rusher as a senior in 1993 and played in the Blue-Gray All-Star Game following his senior season. He guided the Orange to three bowl berths during his career; the 1990 Aloha Bowl, 1992 Hall of Fame Bowl and 1993 Fiesta Bowl. Syracuse won all three games.

After his playing days, Richardson signed a free agent contract with the Cincinnati Bengals in 1994 and also spent time with the Philadelphia Eagles (1995), Kansas City Chiefs (1996) and Pittsburgh Steelers (1996-97).

A finalist for the prestigious Broyles Award during his first season in Starkville in 2018, defensive coordinator/safeties coach Bob Shoop has established Mississippi State's defense as one of the nation's elite as the Bulldogs were the only team in college football to finish inside the top 10 of all four major defensive categories.

State led the nation in total defense (263.1), finished second in scoring defense (13.2) – behind national champion Clemson (13.1) – second in rushing defense (95.08) and seventh in passing defense (168.0). Arguably the most dominant defensive unit in school history, MSU was No. 1 in the rugged SEC in 29 different categories while 10 of those led the nation.

Known for his aggressive style and making offenses earn every yard they get, Shoop's unit allowed the fewest yards per play in the nation (4.13). Shoop, who has coordinated units to top 25 rankings in total defense in six out of the last eight years, enters his second season on Joe Moorhead's MSU staff. Moorhead officially announced Shoop's hiring on Dec. 10, 2017. The Oakmont, Pennsylvania, native has 30 years of collegiate coaching experience, and has coached in 12 bowl games.

The 2014 National Defensive Coordinator of the Year, Shoop has proven to be one of the top defensive minds in the game. He has served as a defensive coordinator for 16 years, including two seasons at Tennessee (2016-17), two seasons at Penn State (2014-15) and three seasons at Vanderbilt (2011-13). Over his last 11 seasons, he's coached 20 NFL Draft picks with four at MSU, five at Tennessee, five at Penn State, three at Vanderbilt and three at William & Mary.

State shattered the school-record for the most defensive players selected in one draft in 2019 (4). Tennessee selected defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons with the 19th overall pick, defensive end Montez Sweat was next as the 26th pick to Washington and Johnathan Abram immediately followed at 27th to Oakland as MSU set the school record for most players selected in the first round and tied Clemson and Alabama for the national lead. Edge rusher Gerri Green was taken in the sixth round by Indianapolis. MSU produced the second-most defensive linemen in the 2019 draft (3) behind only Clemson (4).

The 2019 NFL Draft marked the first time in school history that MSU had multiple defensive linemen selected in the first round. In fact, the Bulldogs and Clemson (also in 2019) are the only schools nationally to accomplish that feat over the last 11 drafts. Simmons, Sweat and Abram each earned All-SEC and All-America honors under Shoop's watch in 2018.

From a historical perspective, the 2018 defense was one of the best in the 119-year history of MSU's program. MSU allowed just 15 touchdowns, the fewest in the country on the year and since 2011 – Alabama (12) and LSU (15). Of the 829 plays MSU's opponents' offenses ran during the regular season, only 29 (3.5 percent) gained 25+ yards or resulted in a touchdown. That figure was the best in the nation.

State set the single-season school record for tackles for loss with 103, bettering the previous best of 98 set in 2015. Individually, Simmons and Sweat led the Bulldogs with 17 and 14, respectively. MSU's 103 tackles for loss were the second most in the SEC, behind Alabama's 107; however, State led the league in tackles for loss per game (7.92.).

The Bulldogs did not allow a rushing touchdown the entire home slate of 2018 and opponents managed only three touchdowns on State in Davis Wade Stadium, spanning 28 quarters. MSU and Fresno State were the only teams that did not allow an opponent to score 30 or more points during the entire 2018 season.

As defensive coordinator at Tennessee in 2017, Shoop oversaw a Vols unit that ranked sixth nationally in pass defense, allowing 161.7 yards per game through the air. In 2016, Shoop directed a Vols defense that was decimated by injuries. Despite the injuries, Derek Barnett earned consensus All-America honors while registering a career-high and SEC-best 13 sacks along with a conference-high 19 tackles for loss. Barnett was then selected in the first round of the 2017 NFL Draft by the Philadelphia Eagles. That same season, Tennessee ranked sixth in the SEC and tied for 32nd in the country with 24 takeaways. The Vols ranked third in the SEC and 15th in the country with 100 tackles for loss. They were also third in the SEC and tied for seventh in the nation with 13 fumbles recovered.

Two of Shoop's Tennessee players heard their names called in the 2018 NFL Draft, including cornerback Rashaan Gaulden (third round – Carolina Panthers) and defensive tackle Kahlil McKenzie (sixth round – Kansas City Chiefs).

Prior to his two-year stint in Knoxville, Shoop transformed Penn State into one of the top defensive units in college football. In 2015, the Nittany Lions ranked 15th in the country in total defense (324.3), 10th in passing defense, (174.5) and tied for the most sacks per game (3.54) in the nation.

Four Penn State players developed by Shoop were selected in the 2016 NFL Draft, including second-round pick defensive tackle Austin Johnson (Tennessee Titans), defensive ends Carl Nassib (Cleveland Browns) and Anthony Zettel (Detroit Lions) and safety Jordan Lucas (Miami Dolphins).

In his first season overseeing the Nittany Lions defense in 2014, the unit ranked second in FBS total defense (278.7) and seventh in scoring defense. That season, Shoop helped senior safety Adrian Amos grab three interceptions and gain honorable mention All-Big Ten accolades and safety Marcus Allen earn Freshman All-America and Big Ten All-Freshman honors. For his efforts in his Penn State debut, 247Sports.com recognized Shoop as its National Defensive Coordinator of the Year. Following the season, Amos was selected in the fifth round of the 2015 NFL Draft to the Chicago Bears.

From 2011-13, Shoop served as defensive coordinator and safeties coach at Vanderbilt where he directed the Commodores to top 25 finishes in total defense in each of his three seasons. Vanderbilt forced 30 turnovers in 2013, which tied for 10th nationally, including 24 over the final eight games. Shoop's 2012 unit held opponents to 18.8 points per game, the lowest by Vanderbilt since 1997, and ranked in the top 20 nationally in pass defense (14th, 191.8 avg.), scoring defense (15th, 18.8 avg.) and total defense (19th, 339.9 avg.).

Shoop began his coaching career at his alma mater, Yale, in 1989 as a graduate assistant. He has also spent time as an assistant coach at William & Mary (2007-10), Massachusetts (2006), Boston College (1999-2002), Army (1998), Villanova (1997), Yale (1989, 1994-96), Northeastern (1991-93) and Virginia (1990). Shoop also has head coaching experience. From 2003-05, he served as head coach at Columbia.

Shoop played wide receiver at Yale where he earned his bachelor's degree in economics. He was recognized with Yale Football's prestigious Robert Gardner Anderson Memorial Award for team spirit, dedication and leadership. He also earned four letters in baseball.

Shoop was a three-sport standout at Riverview High School and is a member of the Allegheny-Kiski Valley Sports Hall of Fame. He and his wife, Maura, have two sons, Tyler and Jay.

Abram, Sweat and fellow All-American defensive tackle Jeffery Simmons were each selected in the first round of the 2019 NFL Draft. It was the first time in school history three Bulldogs were selected in the first round. Tennessee selected Simmons with the 19th overall pick in the draft, Sweat was next as the 26th pick to Washington and Abram immediately followed at 27th overall to Oakland.

Jenkins went on to get drafted 44th overall by Green Bay, while defensive end Gerri Green was selected by Indianapolis at 199th overall in the sixth round.

YEAR ONE OF JOE MOORHEAD ERA

The 2018 season saw Joe Moorhead become just the second MSU head coach to win eight or more games in his debut season and the first since College Football Hall of Famer Allyn McKeen in 1939. The Bulldogs wrapped up the season with an 8-5 overall record, including a 4-4 mark in SEC play. Moorhead was also just the second coach in Bulldog history to reach a bowl game in his first season, joining Jackie Sherrill's 1991 squad. Behind one of the SEC's most potent rushing attacks and the nation's No. 1 defense, the Bulldogs defeated two top-20 teams, won four out of their last five games of the regular season and qualified for a school-record ninth-consecutive bowl. Moorhead's group reclaimed the historic Golden Egg trophy when MSU throttled rival Ole Miss, 35-3, on Thanksgiving night. All eight of MSU's victories were by double-digits, including a 28-13 win over then-No. 19 Texas A&M. Moorhead's first State team secured the program's second-highest finish ever in the College Football Playoff rankings at No. 18. Four of MSU's five losses occurred to teams in the final top 15 of the College Football Playoff rankings, including three on the road.

MSU FINISHES NO. 25 IN COACHES POLL, NO. 18 IN CFP

For the seventh time in school history, Mississippi State finished the season ranked in the final Amway Coaches Poll as the Bulldogs checked in at No. 25. The Bulldogs closed out the year ranked in 12 of 16 weeks in the poll, including each of the last seven. The ranking marked the second-straight year MSU finished the season ranked in the final poll. State was one of seven schools in the SEC in the final poll, joining No. 2 Alabama, No. 6 Florida, No. 7 LSU, No. 8 Georgia, No. 11 Kentucky and No. 16 Texas A&M. State fell to Iowa, 27-22, in the Outback Bowl, which was the Bulldogs' school-record ninth-straight bowl appearance. MSU is one of five SEC teams that have been to a bowl every season this decade (Alabama, Georgia, LSU and Texas A&M the others). State's streak of nine-straight bowls is currently the fifth-longest in the SEC.

STATE TIES FOR NATIONAL LEAD WITH THREE FIRST ROUND NFL DRAFT PICKS

For the first time in school history, three Bulldogs were selected in the first round of the NFL Draft as the All-American defensive trio of Jeffery Simmons (19th overall, Tennessee), Montez Sweat (26th overall, Washington) and Johnathan Abram (27th overall, Oakland) all heard their names called on night one in Nashville. State's three first-round selections tied with Clemson and Alabama for the most in the nation this year. Overall, MSU finished with a three-day 2019 NFL Draft overall total of five picks, its most since the 2015 draft that produced five, as Elgton Jenkins (2nd round, 44th overall, Green Bay) and Gerri Green (199th overall, Indianapolis) were later selected.

- This was the first time in school history that MSU has had multiple defensive linemen selected in the first round. In fact, the Bulldogs and Clemson (also in 2019) are the only schools nationally to accomplish that feat in the last 11 drafts.
- MSU's four defensive selections were the most defensive picks in school history. The previous was three in 2015, 2001, 2000 and 1993.
- State set school records for most players selected in the first round (3) and most picks in the first two rounds (4). They tied the school record for most picks through the first six rounds (5).
- MSU joined Clemson as the only two programs to produce three or more picks through pick 44.
- With three selections, it was the most defensive linemen chosen in a draft in MSU history.
- Jenkins marked the third straight year that an MSU offensive lineman was selected in the draft.
- It's the first time since 2000-01 that State produced four or more draft picks in consecutive drafts.
- Abram (No. 27) was the second-highest drafted defensive back in school history behind only Walt Harris, who went No. 13 overall in 1996.
- With the three first round picks, State has now produced 14 first round selections all-time in the modern draft era.
- Simmons (No. 19) was the highest drafted Bulldog since Pro Bowler Fletcher Cox went No. 12 overall in 2012. Simmons was the first Bulldog selected by the Tennessee Titans since Antonio Johnson in 2007.
- Jenkins (No. 44) became the Bulldogs' highest-drafted offensive lineman since Derek Sherrod was selected No. 32 overall by the Green Bay Packers in 2011. Jenkins, once a three-star recruit, was the second-highest drafted Bulldog offensive lineman since 1978.
- MSU produced the second-most defensive linemen in this draft (3) behind only Clemson (4).

NATION'S BEST DEFENSE

The Bulldogs featured arguably the most dominant defensive unit in school history and in all of college football. Directed by defensive coordinator/safeties coach Bob Shoop, MSU was the only school in the country to finish in the top 10 of all four major defensive categories. State led the nation in total defense (263.1), finished second in scoring defense (13.2) – behind national champion Clemson (13.1) – second in rushing defense (95.08) and seventh in passing defense (168.0). Overall, MSU was No. 1 in the rugged SEC in 29 different defensive categories while 10 of those were tops in the country.

FITZGERALD TAKES SEC QUARTERBACK RUSHING CROWN

Nick Fitzgerald became the only quarterback in SEC history to rush for more than 3,000 yards in a career. With his 195-yard outburst in the Bulldogs' 23-9 win against then-No. 6 Auburn on Oct. 6, Fitzgerald passed Florida's Tim Tebow (2006-09) for most career rushing yards by a quarterback in SEC history. He finished his career with 3,607, good for No. 2 overall in MSU career history.

FIVE BULLDOGS EARN AP ALL-SEC HONORS

Five members of MSU's defense, including three first-team selections, earned a place on the 2018 Associated Press All-SEC teams. DE Montez Sweat, DT Jeffery Simmons and S Johnathan Abram were all tabbed to the AP's All-SEC first team. After earning first team honors last season, Simmons and Sweat were the first defensive line duo in Mississippi State history to win first-team All-SEC laurels from the AP in back-to-back seasons. With its three first-team defensive selections, MSU tied for the conference lead with LSU. LB Erroll Thompson and CB Cameron Dantzler rounded out the accolades with selections to the AP's All-SEC second team. With five total selections MSU tied LSU for the third-most selections among the SEC, only trailing Alabama (8) and Georgia (7). It was the first time that MSU earned a total of five AP All-SEC honorees since the historic 2014 season. MSU's three first-team selections were its most since the 2000 season when linebacker Mario Haggan, safety Pig Prather, cornerback Fred Smoot and offensive tackle Pork Chop Womack all took home first-team laurels from the AP. It also marked the first time since the 2000 season that MSU's defensive unit earned three AP first-team All-SEC accolades.

COACHES TABBED FOUR BULLDOGS TO ALL-SEC SQUADS

DE Montez Sweat and DT Jeffery Simmons both earned spots on the All-SEC Coaches first team, marking the second-consecutive season the duo has brought home first-team honors. They were the first defensive line teammates in MSU history to bring home back-to-back first-team laurels. S Johnathan Abram and OG Deion Calhoun rounded out MSU's accolades with spots on the All-SEC Coaches second team. Abram is the first MSU's safety to earn an All-SEC nod from the league's coaches since Nickoe Whitley in 2013. MSU's four overall All-SEC selections were the program's most since MSU earned a total of five honorees over the 2014 campaign.

SHOOP A BROYLES AWARD FINALIST

The leader of college football's top defensive unit, defensive coordinator and safeties coach Bob Shoop was one of five finalists for the 2018 Broyles Award, given annually to the nation's top assistant coach. The other finalists were Alabama offensive coordinator Michael Locksley - who won the award - Army defensive coordinator Jay Bateman, Clemson co-offensive coordinator Jeff Scott and Notre Dame offensive coordinator Chip Long. Shoop became the Bulldogs' second ever Broyles Award finalist, joining former defensive coordinator and linebackers coach Joe Lee Dunn (1999).

No. 18 State Routs Stephen F. Austin 63-6 to Usher in Joe Moorhead Era

Keytaon Thompson, making just his second career start, tied the SEC and MSU single-game record for touchdowns responsible (7) while accounting for 473 yards of total offense in a 63-6 win over Stephen F. Austin to successfully open the Joe Moorhead era in Davis Wade Stadium. Thompson got the starting nod in place of Nick Fitzgerald, who was serving a one-game suspension for violation of team rules. Kylin Hill, making his first career start, opened the Moorhead era in an explosive way, hauling in a quick pass from Thompson and racing 53 yards on the Bulldogs' first play from scrimmage for a TD. Thompson did it with his feet and his arm, tying the MSU single-game record with five touchdown passes. The big play came on an 87-yard deep strike to Osirus Mitchell with 3:44 to go in the first quarter, representing the longest State pass play in 14 years. Thompson became just the third player in Bulldog history with over 300 yards passing and 100 yards rushing in the same game. He tallied his third-straight 100-yard game on the ground and added two scores. State took a 35-3 lead into halftime following a brilliant one-handed, 17-yard touchdown grab from Dontea Jones with 1:01 in the second quarter. Defensively, Johnathan Abram made a game-high eight tackles. Montez Sweat and Jeffery Simmons combined for seven tackles for loss with two sacks coming from Sweat. C.J. Morgan also recorded his first career interception.

No. 18 MSU Physically Dominates K-State, 31-10

A rare non-conference road game against a Power 5 team proved to be an easy task for No. 18 MSU, who used a spectacular three-touchdown, 211-yard rushing game from Kylin Hill to dominate Kansas State, 31-10, in Manhattan. It was the Bulldogs' first road victory over a Power 5 non-conference team since 1995 and their largest since 1973 in such games. Hill became the first Bulldog running back with over 200 yards rushing in nine years, and much of it came after contact. Hill hauled in a 16-yard touchdown pass from Nick Fitzgerald, who returned as a starter for the first time since his ankle injury on Thanksgiving 2017. Then prior to the half, MSU used three quick plays and a 28-yard Hill touchdown scamper to go up 24-3 at the half. Fitzgerald threw his first touchdown of the season on a 13-yard slant to Austin Williams. Hill put the finishing touches on the win with a 16-yard run over defenders with 13:16 left in the game. Hill outgained the entire Kansas State team as the Wildcats finished with 213 total yards, their fewest since 2015. Fitzgerald went over 100 yards rushing for the sixth time in his last eight games. Defensively, Johnathan Abram led all tacklers for the second straight game with eight. Jeffery Simmons and Montez Sweat each registered two tackles for loss. Erroll Thompson shined with seven tackles, one sack and a diving interception that halted a Kansas State drive.

No. 16 MSU Strikes Early, Often in 56-10 Rout of Louisiana

Nick Fitzgerald's first home start of the year proved to be one of the best of his career. The senior quarterback accounted for six touchdowns - one shy of his SEC record - and No. 16 MSU moved to 3-0 with a 56-10 rout of Louisiana on Saturday night in Davis Wade Stadium. It was the first meeting between the two teams since 1987. The Bulldogs scored touchdowns on their first eight drives, punting only once on the night. Fitzgerald accounted for 350 yards of total offense, rushing for over 100 yards for the second-straight game. He tallied three rushing scores in the first half and connected with Stephen Guidry on the big strike of the night, a beautiful 39-yard touchdown pass to give the Bulldogs a 35-3 lead at the half. Aeris Williams saw his first significant action of the season, rushing for 101 yards on 11 carries with a touchdown. The Bulldogs amassed 607 yards of total offense. Tim Washington led all tacklers with a career-best nine and one tackle for loss. Leo Lewis added eight tackles and 1.5 tackles for loss. Johnathan Abram hauled in an interception in the third quarter, and Chauncey Rivers added two tackles for loss.

No. 14 MSU Drops SEC Opener at Kentucky, 28-7

Penalties proved to be problematic as Kentucky rushed for 229 yards to knock off No. 14 Mississippi State, 28-7, on a rainy Saturday night at Kroger Field. The Bulldogs were penalized 16 times for 139 yards and could not get into a rhythm offensively. State was held to just 201 yards of total offense and only 56 yards on the ground. After a scoreless first quarter, Nick Fitzgerald put the Bulldogs in front on a 1-yard touchdown run that culminated a 15-play, 80-yard drive. Kentucky reeled off 28 unanswered points highlighted by four-consecutive touchdown runs from Benny Snell. Snell finished with 165 yards rushing. With MSU trailing 14-7, Brian Cole stalled a UK drive on a beautiful interception but the Bulldogs were unable to do anything with it. The Bulldogs had -9 yards of total offense in the fourth quarter. Erroll Thompson led all MSU tacklers with seven, including 0.5 sack. Jeffery Simmons and Braxton Hoyett each gathered two tackles for loss, while Montez Sweat added 1.5 sacks.

MSU Grinds Out 23-9 Win Over No. 8 Auburn

MSU snapped a two-game losing streak in a big way, punishing No. 8 Auburn with smashmouth football in a 23-9 victory on Saturday night in Davis Wade Stadium. The Bulldogs rushed for 349 yards and averaged 6.1 yards per carry. Auburn came into the contest having allowed only one rushing touchdown and 92.8 yards per game on the ground all year, which was second in the SEC. Nick Fitzgerald led the way, pounding out 195 yards on 28 carries and two touchdowns. In the process, Fitzgerald became the SEC's all-time leader in quarterback rushing yards, shattering Tim Tebow's record. Fitzgerald accounted for 264 yards of total offense and plunged in from 1-yard as time expired in the first half to lift the Bulldogs to a 13-3 lead. Jace Christmann tied a career high with three made field goals. He culminated a 13-play, 8:05 drive on the first possession of the second half with a 32-yard field goal. Fitzgerald put the game out of reach with a 21-yard TD run with 2:02 to go in the game. State's defense limited Auburn to 90 yards rushing, while Montez Sweat recorded three sacks - all in the second half. Mark McLaurin was the Bulldogs' leading tackler, collecting 10 and forcing a critical fumble in the third quarter. Auburn's JaTarvious Whitlow scampered 41 yards but McLaurin, not giving up on the play, popped the ball out at the 1-yard line to force a touchback. The score would have cut MSU's lead to three points at the time. The victory was the Bulldogs' largest margin of victory over a top 10 team since 2014.

MSU Falls in Defensive Struggle at No. 5 LSU, 19-3

Nick Fitzgerald was intercepted four times and No. 22 Mississippi State was held out of the endzone in a 19-3 loss in front of 101,340 fans on Saturday night in Tiger Stadium. Fitzgerald did manage to rush for 131 yards on 23 carries. The Bulldogs outgained the Tigers 260-239, and the State defense held LSU to 3.3 yards per play. Turnovers proved to be the difference. On the Bulldogs' first series, Fitzgerald was intercepted by Michael Divinity, who returned it 31 yards to the MSU 3. That set up the Tigers' only touchdown of the night. State was pinned deep in its own territory for most of the game. With the score 10-3, LSU's Cole Tracy drilled the second of his four field goals on the first possession of the second half. On the ensuing possession, State turned it over on downs as Fitzgerald was sacked on fourth down. MSU's defense stood out with three Bulldogs collecting 10 tackles - Johnathan Abram, Mark McLaurin and Jeffery Simmons. Abram and Montez Sweat tallied a sack, while Cameron Dantzler, making a return to his home state, intercepted a pass.

Pass Game Emerges In 28-13 Win Over No. 16 Texas A&M at Home

Nick Fitzgerald accounted for 329 yards of total offense and four touchdowns, including a career-long, game-clinching 76-yard TD run with 2:17 to play, as Mississippi State knocked off No. 16 Texas A&M, 28-13, on Saturday night in Davis Wade Stadium. Fitzgerald threw for a season-best 241 yards on 14-of-22 passing and two scores. He put the Bulldogs on the board early as Stephen Guidry started his big night with an over-the-shoulder 25-yard grab in the corner of the endzone. The Aggies responded with 10 unanswered points to take a 10-7 lead into the locker room, but MSU responded on its first possession of the second half. State went 75 yards on seven plays, culminating with a beautiful 38-yard touchdown catch from Osirus Mitchell to put the Bulldogs back in front 14-10. After A&M converted a field goal, Fitzgerald provided two fourth-quarter rushing touchdowns. One of the many explosive plays of the night and facing the best third-down defense in the nation, Fitzgerald escaped a 3rd-and-21 to find Guidry for an 84-yard pass down to the Texas A&M 2-yard line. It was the fourth-longest pass in Bulldog history. Three plays later, Fitzgerald plunged into the endzone from 1-yard out. The Aggies began a potential game-tying drive that stalled when Kellen Mond was intercepted by Erroll Thompson in the endzone with 2:36 to play in the game. Two plays later, Fitzgerald put the finishing touches on the victory with his career-long 76-yard touchdown run. Johnathan Abram finished with nine tackles, while Jaquarius Landrews tallied the best game of his career with seven tackles, two sacks, 2.5 tackles for loss and three pass breakups. Fitzgerald finished 3-0 in his career as a starter vs. A&M.

Offense Stays Hot in 45-3 Win Over LA Tech

No. 18 Mississippi State jumped out to a 21-3 first-quarter lead and never looked back in a dominating 45-3 victory over Louisiana Tech on Homecoming in Davis Wade Stadium. Nick Fitzgerald continued his hot streak, throwing for a season-high four touchdowns - all in the first half. For the second-straight game, the Bulldogs scored on their first possession when Fitzgerald found Stephen Guidry for an 11-yard TD strike. On the following possession, State went 59 yards on eight plays that culminated with Fitzgerald throwing a 36-yard TD pass to Deddrick Thomas. The scoring spree continued when Fitzgerald dropped a beautiful over-the-shoulder TD pass to Kylin Hill in the corner of the endzone for a 23-yard score. Right before the half, Jesse Jackson hauled in his first career TD on a 10-yard score that gave the Bulldogs a 31-3 lead going into the locker room. Meanwhile, the Bulldog defense did not allow a touchdown and pitched a shutout the final three quarters. State averaged 8.2 yards per play on the night. Erroll Thompson led the Bulldogs with nine tackles, while Montez Sweat tallied his 20th career sack. Mark McLaurin added seven tackles, and Stephen Adegoke notched his first-career interception in the fourth quarter.

Defense Shines in 24-0 Loss at No. 1 Alabama

Top-ranked Alabama jumped out to a 14-0 lead in the first quarter, and No. 16 Mississippi State was limited to 184 yards of total offense in a 24-0 loss in Bryant-Denny Stadium. The Bulldogs limited the Tide to a field goal in the second half and held them to season lows in points, total yards (305), rushing yards (142), passing yards (163) and yards per play (4.2). State racked up four sacks and seven tackles for loss, which was the most issued by Alabama all season. The Bulldogs looked to have gotten on the board right before halftime. Kylin Hill broke through on a 38-yard rush followed by a 23-yard reception from Aeris Williams. Two plays later, Nick Fitzgerald found Hill who raced into the endzone from 10 yards out. However, a controversial illegal block call on Deddrick Thomas negated the score. MSU then missed a 41-yard field goal as the half ended. The Bulldogs held Alabama to 89 total yards in the second half. Willie Gay Jr., making the start in place of Leo Lewis, had the best game of his career, recording a game-high nine tackles, two sacks and an interception. Johnathan Abram added nine tackles, while Jeffery Simmons had six tackles and two tackles for loss.

Fitzgerald Shines on Senior Day in 52-6 Win vs. Arkansas

Playing his final game in Davis Wade Stadium, Nick Fitzgerald accounted for five touchdowns and the Bulldog defense prevented Arkansas from reaching the endzone in a 52-6 win over the Razorbacks. It was the largest victory for State in the series' history and only the second day game for the Bulldogs in 2018. MSU jumped out to a 17-0 lead utilizing a pair of touchdown runs - a 2-yarder by Fitzgerald and an 8-yarder by Nick Gibson. Fitzgerald overtook Anthony Dixon as MSU's all-time leader in rushing touchdowns. His final four completions of the day were all touchdown passes in the second half, including a 34-yarder to fellow senior Justin Johnson on the Bulldogs' first possession. Meanwhile, Johnathan Abram put on a clinic at safety, racking up a game-high and a career-best 12 tackles, 1.5 sacks, 3.5 tackles for loss, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and two quarterback hurries. State accumulated five sacks and 12 tackles for loss on the day. Erroll Thompson added 10 tackles and 2.5 tackles for loss. C.J. Morgan recorded an interception. The Bulldogs closed their home slate with a 6-1 record and did not allow a rushing touchdown in Davis Wade Stadium the entire season.

No. 18 MSU Runs Past Rebels 35-3 to Reclaim Golden Egg

Nick Fitzgerald ran for two touchdowns and threw for another score to lead No. 22 Mississippi State over Ole Miss 35-3 on Thanksgiving night. MSU thrived in the ground game, racking up 309 yards behind 100-yard games from both Fitzgerald and Kylin Hill, who pounded out 117 and 108 yards, respectively. Through the air, State amassed 111 yards to total 420 yards of offense in the victory. Fitzgerald accounted for 228 yards and three touchdowns. Hill and Aeris Williams each had touchdown runs in the contest and Deddrick Thomas had a scoring reception. Defensively, the Maroon and White was as dominant as ever—especially against the Rebels' running game. The Bulldogs' stout defensive unit held Ole Miss to just 189 yards of total offense and a staggering 37 on the ground. State forced three turnovers and the Rebels went 0-for-10 on third downs. MSU wreaked havoc in the Rebels' backfield, totaling 11 tackles for loss and four sacks. Additionally, four QB hurries paved the way to a pair of interceptions—one each by Johnathan Abram and Maurice Smitherman. Erroll Thompson led the Bulldogs with seven tackles, two for losses. Montez Sweat had six stops, including 1.5 sacks. Abram had four tackles, a tackle for loss, the interception and two pass breakups. Jeffery Simmons and Gerri Green also had sacks in the contest.

Iowa Rallies Past No. 18 MSU on New Year's Day in Outback Bowl, 27-22

A late fourth-quarter comeback attempt fell just short for No. 18 Mississippi State on New Year's Day, with MSU dropping a 27-22 decision to Iowa in the Outback Bowl. The Bulldogs held the Hawkeyes to under 200 yards of total offense, including -15 yards rushing. Nick Fitzgerald, in his final game as a Bulldog, totaled 255 yards of total offense, passing for 152 while gaining 103 on the ground. That performance marked the 21st time the Richmond Hill, Georgia, native had run for over 100 yards. As a team, MSU gained 342 yards of offense, including 190 on the ground. Also playing in his final game at MSU, Jeffery Simmons was one of several Bulldogs who made plays in the Hawkeye backfield, notching a sack and 2.5 tackles for loss to pace the Maroon and White. MSU's defense posted three sacks and seven TFLs against Iowa. MSU got out to a 6-0 lead with a pair of first-quarter field goals by Jace Christmann from 44 and 42 yards out. The Hawkeyes then cut State's lead in half with a 44-yard kick by Miguel Recinos. Iowa then scored a pair of touchdowns through the air, with Nate Stanley hitting Nick Easley (75 yards) and Ihmir Smith-Marsette (15 yards) to give the Hawkeyes a 17-6 lead at the half. The Bulldogs would come out of the locker room hot to score a pair of touchdowns within 18 seconds of one another, both off turnovers. First, a Willie Gay, Jr., interception return to the Iowa 6-yard line set up Kylin Hill's 1-yard push over the goal line on a swing pass from Fitzgerald. A few seconds later, Mark McLaurin recovered a fumble on the kickoff return at the Iowa 33. The next play, Fitzgerald scampered for his 101st career touchdown to give State a 19-17 lead. Iowa would reclaim the lead at 24-19 on an 8-yard touchdown catch by Easley late in the third quarter. A 20-yard kick by State's Christmann would cut the deficit to 24-22 with 12:04 remaining. A 40-yard kick by Recinos extended the Hawkeyes' lead to 27-22 with 5:51 left. State regained possession with 2:22 left, having to go 68 yards to score the go-ahead touchdown but with no timeouts remaining. Fitzgerald led the MSU offense into Hawkeye territory, reaching the Iowa 37. However, the nine-play drive ended on an incomplete fourth-down pass with 25 seconds left, turning the ball over on downs, and Iowa took a knee to secure the victory.

MISSISSIPPI STATE 12
DUQUESNE 13

January 1, 1937 • Orange Bowl • Miami, Fla.

A desperation 72-yard touchdown pass from tailback Boyd Brumbaugh to end Ernie Hefferlie spelled an end to Mississippi State's upset hopes as Duquesne edged the Bulldogs 13-12 in the first decade of Orange Bowl history.

With time running out, coach John "Little Clipper" Smith's Dukes went to the air. His team had thrown six straight incompletions before Brumbaugh heaved one after fading back all the way to his own 20-yard line. Hefferlie cradled it in at the State 25 and scored untouched for the game-winner.

"A shouting, shirt-sleeved crowd of 9,210 went wild when Brumbaugh's bull's eye in the final period pulled the Dukes from almost certain defeat," a local newspaper account detailed.

Coach Ralph Sasse's Bulldogs, who ended the year at a hearty 7-3-1 after the postseason clash, scored first on a 10-yard run by back Ike Pickle. Pickle later boomed an 82-yard punt for an Orange Bowl record that still stands.

After Brumbaugh plunged 1 yard and a PAT kick put the Dukes of Pittsburgh, Pa., ahead 7-6, State reversed the advantage again when tailback Pee Wee Armstrong of Meridian lofted a 40-yard touchdown pass to Fred Walters of Laurel to give the Bulldogs a 12-7 lead. That same twosome had combined for a 65-yard scoring pass to give MSU a stunning 13-7 upset at Army during the 1935 season.

Armstrong's scintillating passes had provided State with the impetus to gain the lead. His aerial strikes set up Pickle's touchdown run prior to his throw to Walters to gain Mississippi State the lead.

Brumbaugh later found Hefferlie for the game-winning TD pass in the fourth quarter. The Dukes edged State after two Bulldog conversion tries had failed.

The narrow loss to Duquesne was a microcosm of the '36 season for State. The Maroons lost three games by a total of 20 points.

January 1, 1941 • Orange Bowl • Miami, Fla.

The Associated Press proclaimed following State's standout season: "Mississippi State reigns as undisputed king of football in the Deep South. State's 13-0 trouncing of Alabama and subsequent acceptance of an Orange Bowl bid eliminated any doubt that the Maroons were gridiron kings of these parts."

Almost a year before the United States of America officially entered World War II, Mississippi State downed the Georgetown Hoyas (who reigned strongly in Eastern football circles in those days) 14-7 in the '41 Orange Bowl to end the year with a 10-0-1 record and a No. 9 ranking nationally.

Coach Allyn McKeen's crew scored in the first quarter when tackle John Tripson covered a blocked Hoya punt in the end zone and Wilbur Dees' extra point gave the Bulldogs a quick 7-0 lead.

State's rugged defense took control in the second quarter after the Bulldogs had jumped ahead 14-0 when tailback Billy Jefferson scored on a 2-yard dive play and Sonny Bruce kicked the PAT.

Georgetown dented Coach McKeen's vaunted defense for the lone Hoyas' TD of the day in the third quarter when Benny Castiglia hit paydirt on a 2-yard run. But MSU managed good ball control behind the running of tailback Harvey Johnson and the defensive work of all-America end Buddy Elrod to secure its first bowl win.

State was led by Starkville native Hunter Corhern, a captain of the team and an outstanding guard. MSU was considered to have the finest line in the South during the '40 season, a group that boasted three all-Southeastern Conference performers, plus the aforementioned Elrod, a consensus all-America.

When asked to compare all his great teams at Mississippi State, head coach Allyn McKeen said, "Some of the school's greatest wins came during the 1939 season, but I have to go with the 1940 team as my best."

December 21, 1963 • Philadelphia Stadium • Philadelphia, Penn.

Hot coffee froze on press box ledges between kickoff and halftime, but the action on the field was warm enough to offset eight-degree temperatures and 17 mile-per-hour winds outside as coach Paul Davis' Bulldogs took a 16-12 win over the North Carolina State Wolfpack.

As the Bulldogs capped a 7-2-2 season before their first national television audience (on NBC, with the legendary Lindsey Nelson providing play-by-play) at Philadelphia Stadium, a blocked punt helped provide MSU's margin of victory for the second bowl game in a row.

In the first quarter, MSU end Bill McGuire blocked a Dave Houtz punt at the N.C. State 26, and fellow end Tommy Inman scooped up the loose football and ran it 11 yards for an MSU score. Justin Canale's PAT made it 7-0. Quarterback Sonny Fisher gave the Bulldogs a little more breathing room later in the period as the Laurel, Miss., resident sprinted 3 yards for a second touchdown. Canale's extra-point kick failed, but the future pro football standout later redeemed himself.

He gave MSU a 16-0 second-quarter lead with a 43-yard field goal into the gusty wind.

But North Carolina State made a bit of a comeback bid, aided by 122 yards on 11 penalties assessed against the aggressive Bulldogs. The Wolfpack scored the last two touchdowns of the game, but both two-point conversion attempts failed.

Coach Davis and his team had heaters on the State bench and a Plexiglas canopy to protect them from the frigid air.

"The defense did a good job all day, especially considering the conditions," Davis said. "We had a stronger line."

MISSISSIPPI STATE 26
NORTH CAROLINA 24

December 28, 1974 • Sun Bowl • El Paso, Texas

Mississippi State's 26-24 Sun Bowl win over North Carolina was one of the truly great contests of the 1974-75 bowl season.

Coach Bob Tyler's Bulldogs, who finished 9-3 and 18th in the nation, set the stage for the game when Most Valuable Offensive Player Terry Vitrano took a handoff from quarterback Rockey Felker and sprinted 55 yards on the game's opening play.

While a rising fog blanketed the field during most of the first half, Vitrano gained big chunks of real estate to end the day with 164 yards on 20 carries, including a game-winning, two-yard touchdown run.

That run capped a 6:29 drive that ate most of the fourth-quarter clock, ending at the 3:41 mark. Three times MSU faced third downs on the drive and State faced a fourth-and-2 at the UNC 25-yard line, where Felker called his own number, clawing for 15 yards. Felker then ran eight more yards to set up Vitrano winning score.

The drive reminded both Tyler and Felker of the Bulldogs' 29-28 win over Memphis State earlier in the year, a game in which State drove 98 yards in the closing two minutes for the win.

All-America defensive tackle Jimmy Webb, named Most Valuable Defensive Player in the game, registered one of his most critical 12 tackles of the day on a fourth-and-short situation at midfield in the fourth quarter to preserve the MSU win.

MSU's All-SEC tailback Walter Packer piled up 183 yards on 24 attempts, scoring on runs of 1 and 16 yards while Vic Nickels kicked field goals of 24 and 32 yards.

Mississippi State's 455 yards of rushing, which still stand as a Sun Bowl record, were just a bit much for the Tar Heels, coached by MSU grad Bill Dooley.

"This team was better than we expected in a lot of ways," Tyler said. "I think we're a year ahead. We established unity in our program that usually takes two seasons to establish. I've never been more confident or enthusiastic about the future than I am right now."

#8 NEBRASKA 31

December 27, 1980 • Sun Bowl • El Paso, Texas

The scene was the same as six years earlier in the Sun Bowl when Mississippi State engaged a team that had as much talent as any football power in the nation.

This bowl trip proved to be less successful, however, as coach Tom Osborne's Huskers prevailed in a 31-17 contest.

Mississippi State had won five consecutive regular-season games to enter the contest with a 9-2 record under coach Emory Bellard, but Nebraska was just a bit too deep and powerful as the Huskers took a 17-0 halftime lead.

State's high-powered offensive attack, which set school records for total offense and rushing offense, later cut the margin to 24-17 behind the option play of freshman quarterback John Bond of Valdosta, Ga. He ran for one touchdown on a 1-yard sneak and hit all-SEC tailback Michael Haddix of Walnut, Miss., for an 11-yard TD pass and MSU's final touchdown.

The day, however, belonged to Nebraska's defense, which held Bond to minus-8 yards rushing on 16 carries, and to seven completions in 19 attempts with two interceptions.

Sophomore kicking specialist Dana Moore from Baton Rouge, La., booted a 47-yard field goal and had a 64-yard punt, enabling him to achieve an MSU-record, 50-yard punting average for the afternoon.

"I am proud of our team and the season we had," Bellard said. "We just flat out gave Nebraska too many opportunities. Our defense played well enough to win. Looking at what we have, we will be back next year."

MISSISSIPPI STATE 10
KANSAS 0

December 31, 1981 • Legion Field • Birmingham, Ala.

With Defensive Most Valuable Player and all-America linebacker Johnie Cooks of Leland, Miss., leading a fierce charge, Mississippi State scored its first bowl shutout win by downing the Kansas Jayhawks of the Big Eight Conference 10-0 to improve its bowl record to 4-2.

It was, indeed, a day for the defense.

The Bulldogs, aided by a steady mist that fell throughout the day, held Kansas to 35 yards rushing on 40 attempts, intercepted a pair of Jayhawk passes, and forced a fumble. State recorded its first shutout since 1979.

Lightning struck early for the Bulldogs as all-SEC defensive back Rob Fesmire of Nashville, Tenn., recovered a Ricky Green fumble on the opening kickoff and the opportunistic Bulldogs scored on the next play. Quarterback John Bond, State's Offensive Most Valuable Player and the game's MVP, sprinted 17 yards around right end on the first play from scrimmage and Bob Morgan's PAT gave the Bulldogs an early 7-0 lead.

Place-kicker Dana Moore iced the game with a 22-yard field goal with just over 11 minutes left in the first half for the final margin of victory. The Bulldogs advanced to 8-4 and moved up to 17th in the final AP national poll.

Moore also set a record, averaging 49.1 yards per punt on nine kicks.

Wingback Danny Knight of Natchez, Miss., contributed a big 37-yard sprint down the left sideline on a third-and-long situation while Cooks, defensive tackles Glen Collins, Earnest Barnes and a number of unsung heroes on the specialty teams gathered together to provide the Bulldogs with the ingredients necessary for a satisfying bowl win.

"The whole defensive unit played extremely well," MSU head coach Emory Bellard said. "We didn't ring the bell quite enough on offense, but we did move the ball down the field a good bit."

AIR FORCE 38

December 29, 1991 • Liberty Bowl • Memphis, Tenn.

An all-time Liberty Bowl crowd of 61,497 looked on as the wishbone-attack of the Air Force Academy spoiled Mississippi State's return to the bowl scene with a 38-15 victory over the Bulldogs in the 33rd annual Liberty Bowl postseason contest.

Directed by all-WAC quarterback and Liberty Bowl MVP Rob Perez, the Falcons piled up 318 net yards rushing while attempting only two passes in this ESPN telecast. A potent ground attack earned AFA a 37:34-22:26 edge in possession time.

The Falcons jumped on MSU early as they posted three unanswered touchdowns before the Bulldogs dented the scoreboard just before halftime. AFA scored on a pair of 1-yard plunges by Jason Jones and Perez in the opening stanza. A 35-yard fumble return by Air Force's Shannon Yates at the 6:12 mark of the second quarter stretched the lead to 21-0.

The Bulldogs got on the scoreboard with the final score of the first half, a 4-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Sleepy Robinson to tight end Trenell Edwards.

After the intermission, AFA added a third-quarter, 20-yard field goal by Joe Wood and a 31-yard touchdown gallop by Scott Hufford to build the Falcons' insurmountable lead to 31-7 with 14:19 remaining in the contest.

Making its first bowl appearance in 10 years, MSU scored its final points on a 7-yard run by fullback Michael Davis with 7:23 left on the game clock.

#19 NORTH CAROLINA 21

January 1, 1993 • The Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Despite jumping out to a 14-0 first-quarter lead, Mississippi State couldn't hold off a North Carolina squad playing an inspired second half as the Tar Heels posted a 21-17 victory in the first Peach Bowl held inside The Georgia Dome.

The Bulldogs jumped on top early, scoring on their first possession when Greg Plump found Olanda Truitt on a 2-yard touchdown pass. MSU added to that lead when Kenny Roberts raced 22 yards on the final play of the first quarter to give the Bulldogs a 14-0 lead.

State had a chance to put the game away in the second quarter, but a pair of Plump-to-Truitt touchdown passes were called back due to Bulldog holding penalties.

Trailing 14-0 at halftime, North Carolina took the second half kickoff and drove 82 yards to score on Natrone Means' 1-yard plunge. Later in the third period, the Tar Heels' Bracey Walker broke through to block a Todd Jordan punt and raced 24 yards into the end zone to tie the game at 14-14.

North Carolina took the lead for good early in the fourth quarter when UNC's Cliff Baskerville intercepted a Plump pass and returned it 44 yards for the go-ahead touchdown.

After Chris Gardner's 46-yard field goal made the score 21-17, the Bulldogs had their chances to win the game late. MSU drove inside the Tar Heel 30 twice in the game's final three minutes, but an interception and loss on downs, respectively, doomed the Bulldogs' final chances.

27th ANNUAL PEACH BOWL

#16 MISSISSIPPI STATE 24
#23 NC STATE 28

January 2, 1995 • The Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

For the second time in three years, Mississippi State earned a berth in the Peach Bowl. And for the second time in three years, the Bulldogs held a third-quarter lead over its counterpart. But again, State could not maintain that advantage, dropping a 28-24 decision to NC State.

Like it had done two years prior, Mississippi State gained an early advantage in this Peach Bowl match-up. Place-kicker Tim Rogers, MSU's Offensive Player of the Game, booted a 37-yard field goal just 2:21 into the contest, and the Bulldogs had a 3-0 advantage. It would be the first of a bowl-record and school-standard tying five field goals for Rogers.

But, as NC State was able to do throughout the game, the Wolfpack erased that early lead. Running back Tremayne Stephens capped an 80-yard drive with a 2-yard touchdown run to give NCSU a 7-3 lead.

Rogers and Steve Videtich traded field goals around the first-quarter break before the Bulldogs mounted a touchdown drive of their own. Senior running back Michael Davis scored from 11 yards out to give MSU a 13-10 edge.

A pair of big plays opened the door for the Bulldogs to take control of the game as the second half began. Forcing the 'Pack to punt on their first series of the second half, Andre Bennett blocked the NC State kick into the end zone for a safety, and MSU had a two-point lead.

On the ensuing free kick, Keffer McGee returned the punt a bowl-record 50 yards, putting the Bulldogs in business at the NCSU 15-yard line. Unable to advance the ball into the end zone, State settled for a Rogers field goal and its lead was just 18-13.

Three plays later, however, Larry Williams, State's Defensive Player of the Game, put his team back in scoring position with a standout defensive play. On a second-and-16 play from the NCSU 30, Williams sacked quarterback Terry Harvey, stripped him of the football, and then recovered the pigskin at the 21.

But once again, the Bulldog attack was not able to capitalize, and Rogers was forced to convert a 36-yard field goal.

Rejuvenated by the disaster averted, NC State struck for a game-tying touchdown and two-point conversion at the close of the third period. Harvey hit Dallas Dickerson from 3 yards out for the score, and then ran for the extra points.

The Wolfpack used a big play of their own, a 62-yard pass play to set up their go-ahead score. Freshman fullback Carlos King bulled in from 11 yards away and State was down 28-21.

SOUTHWESTERN BELL COTTON BOWL CLASSIC

#20 TEXAS 38

January 1, 1999 • Cotton Bowl • Dallas, Texas

Playing in their first traditional New Year's Day bowl game since the 1941 Orange Bowl, the Bulldogs faced an enormous task in trying to stop the University of Texas and its Heisman Trophy winner Ricky Williams. Behind Williams' Cotton Bowl record 203 yards rushing and two touchdowns, the Longhorns snapped their seven-game losing slide to Jackie Sherrill and defeated Mississippi State 38-11 in the Southwestern Bell Cotton Bowl Classic.

Texas struck early in the contest behind the arm of quarterback Major Applewhite. The freshman found Wayne McGarity late in the opening period on a 59-yard scoring strike, giving Texas an early 7-0 lead.

The Longhorns took advantage of good field position and a long pass play to take a 14-0 lead, as Applewhite again called McGarity's number for a 52-yard touchdown with 5:11 to go in the first half.

Mississippi State would close out the scoring in the half with a 39-yard field goal from senior Brian Hazelwood.

After showcasing their passing game in the first half, Texas began to exploit a tired Bulldog defense with a running game that featured the NCAA's career rushing leader in Williams, who got the scoring started in the second half with a 37-yard gallop to stretch the Longhorns' lead to 21-3 just 2:26 into the second half. A Kris Stockton field goal would extend the UT lead to 24-3 six minutes later.

The Bulldog offense, led by James Johnson's 112 yards on the ground, still struggled to find its niche against a stubborn Texas defense. An injury to star all-purpose receiver Kevin Prentiss in the opening half made their task even more difficult. Unable to keep the weary MSU defense off the field, the Bulldogs were victimized by another Williams' scoring run at the 2:42 mark of the third period as Texas grabbed control of the contest with a 31-3 advantage.

#15 MISSISSIPPI STATE 17
CLEMSON 7

December 30, 1999 • The Georgia Dome • Atlanta, Ga.

Behind the impetus that had been the key all season — defense — Mississippi State downed Clemson 17-7 in the 1999 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl in Atlanta's Georgia Dome.

The win gave State its 10th victory of the season, grouping the '99 Bulldogs with MSU's '40 edition which also posted 10 victories.

MSU notched the win despite allowing the most yardage it had all season (391), with 301 of that coming from quarterback Brandon Streeter who passed 50 times in the game.

Defense was the norm in the first half for both squads as the teams played to a scoreless tie at halftime. The closest either team got to a score in the first half was when Clemson advanced to State's 9-yard line late in the first quarter. But Tiger Tony Lazzara's field goal attempt was blocked by Bulldog senior Robert Bean, who registered his seventh career blocked kick.

State wasted little time breaking the scoring ice in the second half. After Pig Prather returned the opening kickoff after intermission 45 yards to the MSU 47-yard line, the Bulldogs drove 31 yards on seven plays to set up a 39-yard field goal from Scott Westerfield at the 12:39 mark.

Three possessions later, Clemson threatened to answer, driving to the State 13 where it faced a fourth-and-7. The Tigers elected to go for it, but the MSU defense held firm, with defensive lineman John Hilliard batting down a Streeter pass.

The quarter would end with State leading 3-0. The fourth quarter would be quite a different story in terms of point production, as the teams combined for three touchdowns in the final frame.

State extended its lead to 10-0 on the first full drive of the final period, going 43 yards on 10 plays with quarterback Wayne Madkin scrambling for a 2-yard score. The drive was set up at Clemson's 43-yard line on an interception by Bulldog Eugene Clinton, one of five State pickoffs in the contest.

Clemson would answer on the ensuing possession with its only score of the night. The Tigers drove 70 yards on eight plays with Streeter diving in from a yard out.

But State was not intimidated. The Bulldogs answered that challenge with a solid eight-play, 57-yard charge of their own. Madkin, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, found tailback Dontae Walker on the left side and Walker jaunted 15 yards for the touchdown which iced the game for MSU at 17-7 with 4:31 remaining in regulation.

MISSISSIPPI STATE 43
TEXAS A&M 41 (OT)

December 31, 2000 • Independence Bowl • Shreveport, La.

Willie Blade blocked an extra point, Julius Griffith ran it to the end zone for a two-point conversion, and Wayne Madkin scored from 6 yards out — all in overtime — to give Mississippi State a hard-fought, 43-41 decision over Texas A&M in the snow-filled Independence Bowl.

The Aggies took advantage of a couple of early MSU miscues on the snow-covered field to take a 14-0 edge seven minutes into the game. After scoring following a mishandled MSU snap just over two minutes into the contest, A&M continued to control momentum on fullback Ja'Mar Toombs' 4-yard plunge. Toombs had a game-high 193 yards.

Jackie Sherrill's Bulldogs fought back in the second quarter. With Toombs running through the State defense, Dontae Walker returned the favor to the Aggie stoppers, tallying 143 yards of his own. The sophomore took a handoff up the middle and scurried for 40 of those yards over the goal line to cut the lead.

With just over a minute until halftime, State scored behind Wayne Madkin. After the junior quarterback rushed for 10 yards, he connected on two pass plays, the second a four-yard score to Dicenzo Miller to tie the game at 14.

A&M bounced back with 31 seconds left in the half to take a 20-14 lead into the locker room. Quarterback Mark Farris lofted a ball high and deep into the heavy falling snow, finding Robert Ferguson on a 42-yard score.

The Aggies tried to put the game out of reach with two fourth-quarter touchdowns. On the opening play of the period, Farris once again went deep, this time connecting with Bethel Johnson on a 35-yard strike. A two-point conversion put the Aggies up 28-21. Toombs extended the lead on the following possession, rushing in from 13 yards to give A&M a 35-21 edge.

Walker cut the lead back to seven as he rushed in from 32 yards out, and, after a Marco Minor interception put MSU at the Aggie 4-yard line, Madkin found tight end Donald Lee in the end zone for the touchdown that sent the game into overtime, tied 35-35.

In the extra session, Toombs rushed in from 25 yards out on the first play to put A&M up 41-35. Blade reached up and blocked the Aggie extra point try. Eugene Clinton picked up the loose ball and pitched to Griffith who ran it in for two points.

Faced with a must-score situation on State's first overtime try, Madkin rushed down to the Aggies' 6-yard line and then took a keeper into the end zone to clinch the 43-41 win in what has become known as "Snow Bowl 2000".

MISSISSIPPI STATE 10
UCF 3

December 29, 2007 • Liberty Bowl Stadium • Memphis, Tenn.

Mississippi State cashed in on Central Florida's fourth turnover of the game, marching to the lone touchdown of the day late in the fourth quarter, to defeat the Knights 10-3 in the 49th renewal of the AutoZone Liberty Bowl, a game that was otherwise very defensive in nature.

With the win, MSU ended the 2007 season at 8-5, its most wins since 2000, and improved to 2-0 all-time over UCF which ended the year 10-4 after winning its last seven games and claiming the Conference USA crown. The Bulldogs also improved to 7-6 all-time in bowl games with the victory and has now been victorious its last three bowl appearances.

The late score, a 1-yard plunge by running back Anthony Dixon, came with just 1:54 remaining in the game. It capped a 10-play, 59-yard drive, State's longest of the day by almost 20 yards, that was setup by Bulldog Keith Fitzhugh's interception of Knight quarterback Kyle Israel, his third throwing miscue of the contest.

But until that point in the game, neither team had generated much offense in a game very much controlled by the defenses. Only two second quarter field goals - one by each team - graced the scoreboard in the first three quarters and the teams would combined for just 418 yards of total offense in the affair.

After a scoreless first quarter started the lowest scoring first half in Liberty Bowl history, UCF finally broke scoring ice after gaining excellent field position at the Bulldog 46 early in the second period. The Knights then moved the ball 18 yards to set up a Michael Torres 45-yard field goal that just cleared the crossbar. UCF led 3-0 with 11:49 to go before the intermission.

After the Knights forced a State punt on the next drive, the Bulldogs got their first break of the afternoon. MSU's Derek Pegues, named the game's Most Valuable Player, picked off the first of two passes at the Knight 46 and returned it 40 yards to the 6-yard line. UCF stood strong, however, and held MSU to a 22-yard Adam Carlson field goal, tying the game at the 6:02 mark.

UCF would have scoring chances on two consecutive drives in the third and fourth periods but Torres, who came into the game having hit 19-of-21 field goals on the year, would miss from 32 and 37 yards on those drives, negating some offensive momentum that the Knights had built at that point in the contest.

Dixon ended the day with 86 yards on 24 carries for the Bulldogs, who managed just 198 yards from scrimmage the entire game.

The game's attendance of 63,816 established a new Liberty Bowl record. The previous record of 61,497 was set in 1991 when the Bulldogs played Air Force.

#21 MISSISSIPPI STATE 52
MICHIGAN 14

January 1, 2011 • EverBank Field • Jacksonville, Fla.

It was an offensive clinic from start to finish for Mississippi State, as the Bulldogs manufactured 485 total yards en route to a dominating 52-14 win against Michigan in the 66th annual Gator Bowl at EverBank Field.

Mississippi State set several school bowl records with points scored (52) and margin of victory (38). In addition, the 485 total yards of offense were second only to the 499 gained against North Carolina in the 1974 Sun Bowl.

Chris Relf, named the game's MVP, completed 18 of his 23 passes for 281 yards and three touchdowns. The 281 passing yards were the second most in MSU bowl history. They are also the only two quarterbacks to throw for more than 200 yards in a bowl game. Relf, a junior from Montgomery, Ala., also scored on the ground from 1-yard out and finished with 311 total yards.

As prolific as MSU's offense was, so too was the defense. The Bulldogs held the Wolverines (7-6) to 342 yards, with 153 coming in the opening quarter. Michigan did enjoy a 14-10 lead after the first frame, but failed to score another point the remainder of the game.

Quarterback Denard Robinson was limited to a season-low 51 yards after grounding out 59 in the first quarter.

Robinson's arm produced the game's first points when he connected with Roy Roundtree for a 10-yard scoring strike. MSU quickly answered, though, and evened the score when Relf hit Arceto Clark from 4 yards out.

On their next possession, the Bulldogs took their first lead at 10-7 on a 42-yard field goal by Derek DePasquale. Back came the Wolverines, however, who went back on top following a 27-yard touchdown pass from Robinson to Martavious Odoms.

That play, though, would be Michigan's last highlight of the game. From that point, it was all Mississippi State.

With 11:38 left in the first half, Vick Ballard scored the first of his three touchdowns to give MSU a 17-14 lead. Then with 6:35 remaining, Relf found the end zone to extend the advantage to 24-14.

But the Bulldogs weren't done, as they scored again with 25 seconds left, this time on a 15-yard pass from Relf to Ricco Sanders, his first-career TD reception, for a 31-14 lead.

In the second half, the Bulldogs, who converted 9 of their 17 third-down attempts and were 5 of 5 on fourth down, got two more touchdowns from Ballard covering 1 and 7 yards. Ballard finished the year with 19 rushing touchdowns, breaking the single-season mark of 16 set by Jackie Parker in 1952.

MSU's final points were the result of a 31-yard pass from Relf to Michael Carr, the first touchdown of the freshman's career.

MISSISSIPPI STATE 23
WAKE FOREST 17

December 30, 2011 • LP Field • Nashville, Tenn.

Donning the Maroon and White for the final time, senior running back Vick Ballard put the team on his back as he rushed for a career-high 180 yards and two touchdowns to propel Mississippi State to a 23-17 victory against Wake Forest in the Franklin American Mortgage Music City Bowl.

The Pascagoula, Miss., native was named MVP, while his production was the second best in MSU bowl history.

It was the Bulldogs' fifth-consecutive bowl win, a streak that tied Rutgers for the longest in the nation. MSU also improved to 9-6 in bowl outings, with a 4-2 mark against ACC foes.

Ballard deserves a bulk of the credit for MSU's latest achievement, breaking free down the sidelines for a 60-yard scoring scamper with 34 seconds left in the opening quarter to even the game at 7-apiece after the Demon Deacons had scored on a 14-yard run by Brandon Pendergrass.

In the second quarter, Mississippi State turned to its passing game to take the lead for good when senior quarterback Chris Relf connected with a wide open Arceto Clark for a 31-yard scoring strike and a 13-7 advantage following the missed PAT. The touchdown was set up when junior defensive end and All-American Fletcher Cox blocked a Wake Forest field goal.

The final points of the half resulted in a 33-yard Derek DePasquale field goal which put MSU up, 16-7.

In the second half, though, Wake Forest grabbed the early momentum when Tommy Bohanon closed the gap to 16-14 on a 1-yard plunge. However, it would be as close as the Demon Deacons would get.

Ballard made sure of that in the fourth quarter when he broke free for a 72-yard touchdown, the longest in MSU bowl history, to swell the lead to 23-14.

Wake would score again on a 46-yard field goal by Jimmy Newman, but from that point the MSU defense thwarted any comeback hopes by taking its play to another level.

Offensively, MSU outgained Wake, 382-287. Relf threw for 129 yards on 12-of-19 passing, while also rushing for another 64 yards en route to finishing his career as MSU's winningest quarterback (15-7).

The defense was led by the play of Cox and Corey Broomfield, who registered a career-best two tackles behind the line of scrimmage to go along with a team-high nine tackles. It was a unit that recorded six sacks, the most since having seven in a 47-35 home win against No. 3 Florida on Sept. 30, 2000.

The No. 20 Northwestern Wildcats (10-3) downed the Mississippi State Bulldogs (9-5) 34-20 in the TaxSlayer.com Gator Bowl.

Northwestern wasted no time getting on the board when Quentin Williams returned a Tyler Russell interception 29 yards just 47 seconds into the game.

Jeff Budzien added a pair of field goals on the Wildcats next two drives from 34 and 37 yards, respectively. The Bulldog defense then stopped the Northwestern offense on back-to-back drives leading to MSU's first points of the day.

Devon Bell got the scoring going with a 27-yard field goal. After MSU forced a three-and-out, Russell connected with Arceto Clark for an 18-yard touchdown and sent State to the locker room only trailing by three.

Nickoe Whitley stopped Northwestern's first drive of the second half with the first of his two interceptions on the day. Three minutes later, Bell tied his career-long with a 47-yard field goal to square the game at 13 apiece.

The Wildcats quickly retook the lead with a six-play, 76-yard drive that only took 1:12 off the clock and then added another touchdown with 1:35 left in the third quarter to take 27-13 lead into the final stanza.

MSU tacked on another touchdown when Russell floated a pass to Malcolm Johnson in center of the endzone just 3:18 into the fourth quarter.

The MSU defense forced another three-and-out on Northwestern's next drive but, Russell's fourth interception of the day was returned 44 yards to the five yard line. The Wildcats punched in their final touchdown to secure the win.

Josh Robinson finished the game as State's leading rusher with 91 yards on seven carries. Junior LaDarius Perkins added 85 yards on 19 carries.

Clark finished with three catches for 36 yards and a touchdown, while Johnson hauled in two catches for 24 yards and a score. Chad Bumphis also grabbed three catches for 18 yards in his final game as a Bulldog.

Russell completed 12-of-28 for 106 yards, two touchdowns and four interceptions.

December 31, 2013 • Liberty Bowl Stadium • Memphis, Tenn.

Mississippi State ended the year and its 2013 season and year with a fitting celebration, ousting the Rice Owls 44-7 to claim victory in the 55th AutoZone Liberty Bowl. The margin of victory was the largest in any bowl game played thus far in 2013.

With the win, the Bulldogs secured their fourth-straight winning season and Dan Mullen earned the record for most bowl wins by any MSU coach ever, now 3-1 in four bowl appearances in his five seasons as the Bulldog mentor.

State dominated the game on both sides of the ball, with the defense holding Rice's top-15 national rushing attack to only 61 yards on the ground in the game while the Bulldog offense racked up 533 total yards on the other side of the ball.

After the Owls took an early 7-0 lead, the Bulldogs went on to score 44 unanswered points in the convincing win. Five different State players scored touchdowns in the contest.

State set school and Liberty Bowl records in the game. Sophomore quarterback Dak Prescott accounted for five touchdowns responsible for (a Liberty Bowl record) while throwing for 283 yards and three scores and rushing for two others. Junior receiver Jameon Lewis set the all-time MSU record for receiving yards in any game - regular or post season - with 220 yards on nine catches.

MSU ended 2013 on a flurry, winning consecutive overtime games at Arkansas and against arch rival Ole Miss at home to become bowl eligible and vault itself into Tuesday's contest in Memphis.

#12 GEORGIA TECH 49

December 31, 2014 • Sun Life Stadium • Miami Gardens, Fla.

Mississippi State (10-3) fell behind 14-0 in the first quarter and Georgia Tech's (11-3) triple-option attack proved to be the difference in a 49-34 score in the 2014 Capital One Orange Bowl at Sun Life Stadium. It was the Bulldogs' first appearance in the contest in 73 years, capping a 10-win season.

A turnover on MSU's first possession led to a Tech touchdown, setting the tone for the rest of the evening. Both teams combined for nearly 1,200 total yards with most of State's coming through the air and nearly all of Tech's on the ground.

MSU junior quarterback Dak Prescott set several records over the course of the evening, throwing for over 400 yards and becoming the all-time record Bulldog holder for yards in a career at MSU, surpassing Don Smith. He also set the school single-game record for total offense with exactly 500 yards against Tech, 453 coming through the air. The highlight of the evening was Prescott's Hail Mary 42-yard touchdown pass to Fred Ross as time expired in the first half. Ross caught the touchdown off a deflection in the end zone that pulled the Bulldogs to within 21-20.

However, Tech's ground attack quickly got rolling in the second half with a 69-yard touchdown run a minute into the third quarter. The Yellow Jackets scored 21 unanswered points. MSU's De'Runnya Wilson caught two touchdown passes in the fourth quarter but it proved to be too late.

NC STATE 28
MISSISSIPPI STATE 51

December 30, 2015 • Bank of America Stadium • Charlotte, N.C.

In a fitting end to the greatest career in MSU history, Dak Prescott threw for a Belk Bowl-record 380 yards and four touchdowns on a rain-soaked field as MSU capped a nine-win season with a 51-28 blowout of NC State in Charlotte. Selected the game MVP, Prescott completed 25 of 42 passes and ran for 47 yards joining Colin Kaepernick, Tim Tebow, Dan LeFevour as the only players in FBS history to throw for 9,000 yards and run for 2,500 yards in their career. The Bulldog defense set the tone early. On the first play from scrimmage, defensive end Jonathan Calvin hit Jacoby Brissett as he released the ball and linebacker Gerri Green came up with the diving interception. Five plays later, Fred Ross hauled in a pass from Prescott in the left flat, turned up the left sideline and raced 14 yards for a score. Brissett had another pass picked off later in the first quarter and Prescott capitalized by finding De'Runnya Wilson for a 28-yard scoring strike. MSU made it 21-0 when Ross scored on a 33-yard reverse. Prescott lobbed his third TD pass of the game to Holloway over a blitzing defense to put the Bulldogs up 37-21 late in the third quarter. The senior quarterback hit Holloway in stride on a go route along the right sideline for a 55-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter. Beniquez Brown and J.T. Gray led all tacklers with nine. Prescott was lifted in the final minute to a standing ovation. The win propelled MSU to back-to-back seasons of at least nine victories for the first time in school history.

MIAMI [OHIO] 16
MISSISSIPPI STATE 17

December 26, 2016 • Tropicana Field • St. Petersburg, Fla.

A pair of blocked kicks, a field goal and two touchdown runs from quarterback Nick Fitzgerald led Mississippi State to a 17-16 victory over Miami [Ohio] in the 2016 St. Petersburg Bowl. With some last-second theatrics, State's Nelson Adams blocked Miami's potential game-winning field goal attempt with five seconds left to lift MSU to the win.

It was MSU's second block of the game with the Bulldogs' Johnathan Calvin also knocking down a Miami extra point attempt early in the game that would ultimately provide the one-point difference in State's triumph. Quarterback Nick Fitzgerald was named MVP of the game after totaling 268 yards and two touchdowns. He completed 13-of-26 passes for 126 yards, while he tied Anthony Dixon's program record with his eighth 100-yard rushing game of the year, running for a total of 142 yards and two touchdowns.

After a slow start to the game (State trailed 9-0 in the second quarter), MSU's offense began to pick up near the end of the first half, scoring on a two-yard keeper by Fitzgerald with 22 seconds left before the intermission. Following a 44-yard touchdown run by Fitzgerald and an interception by sophomore cornerback Jamoral Graham in the third quarter, junior place kicker Westin Graves gave MSU its first lead of the game in the fourth quarter, hitting a 36-yard field goal to put the Bulldogs up 17-16.

The Bulldogs were paced defensively by senior linebacker Richie Brown with nine tackles, in addition to a forced fumble. State's defense forced two turnovers over the course of the game.

December 30, 2017 • EverBank Field • Jacksonville, Fla.

With an interim coaching staff in place and injuries keeping big-time player makers off the field, true freshman Keytaon Thompson in his first-ever start at quarterback turned in a record-breaking performance against Heisman Trophy winner Lamar Jackson and Louisville as MSU capped off a nine-win season and earned the program's third consecutive bowl victory ousting the Cardinals 31-27 in Jacksonville.

Thompson finished 11-of-20 passing for 127 yards and one interception. The true freshman quarterback tied an MSU bowl record with 27 rushing attempts for 147 yards and three rushing scores. Ultimately, MSU racked up 404 yards of offense behind Thompson's leadership.

MSU's defense kept Jackson contained as the Bulldog defense recorded six pass break-ups, six sacks and four interceptions. Selected as the TaxSlayer Bowl MVP, Mark McLaurin tallied three of MSU's four interceptions to set a MSU bowl record.

Louisville led 21-17 at halftime and 24-17 through three quarters, but State rallied to outscore the Cardinals 14-3 in the final period on the strength of two of Thompson's three rushing touchdowns as well as two of McLaurin's three interceptions.

#18 MISSISSIPPI STATE 22
IOWA 27

January 1, 2019 • Raymond James Stadium • Tampa, Fla.

A late fourth-quarter comeback attempt fell just short for No. 18 Mississippi State on New Year's Day as the Bulldogs dropped a 27-22 decision to Iowa in the Outback Bowl. Nick Fitzgerald led the Bulldog offense into Iowa territory with seconds remaining in the contest, but a failed fourth-down attempt handed the victory to the Hawkeyes.

MSU got out to a 6-0 lead with a pair of first-quarter field goals by Jace Christmann, but the Hawkeyes cut State's lead in half with a 44-yard kick by Miguel Recinos. Iowa then scored a pair of touchdowns through the air, with Nate Stanley hitting Nick Easley and Ihmir Smith-Marsette (15 yards) to give the Hawkeyes a 17-6 lead at the half.

The Bulldogs would come out of the locker room hot to score a pair of touchdowns within 18 seconds of one another. A Willie Gay, Jr., interception return to the Iowa 6-yard line set up Kylin Hill's 1-yard push over the goal line on a swing pass from Fitzgerald. A few seconds later, Mark McLaurin recovered a fumble on the kickoff return at the Iowa 33. The next play, Fitzgerald scampered for his 101st career touchdown to give State a 19-17 lead.

Iowa would reclaim the lead at 24-19 on an 8-yard touchdown catch by Easley late in the third quarter. Christmann and Recinos exchanged field goals in the fourth, giving Iowa a 27-22 advantage with 5:51. State regained possession with 2:22 left, having to go 68 yards to score the go-ahead touchdown, but with no timeouts remaining. Fitzgerald led the MSU offense into Hawkeye territory, but the nine-play drive ended on an incomplete fourth-down pass with 25 seconds left, turning the ball over on downs. Iowa took a knee to secure the victory.

In his final game as a Bulldog, Fitzgerald totaled 255 yards of total offense, passing for 152 while gaining 103 on the ground for his 21st 100-yard rushing performance. Also playing in his final game at MSU, Jeffery Simmons highlighted the defense, notching a sack and 2.5 tackles for loss to pace the Maroon and White.

It was MSU's first-ever Outback Bowl appearance.

WELCOME TO #STARKVEGAS

"You can't duplicate it. That is the only stadium I have broadcast a game in where I actually had to use an earplug in my non-earpiece ear to be able to focus, hear our broadcast and actually do my job. The only one."
– Tom Luginbill, ESPN (9.25.18)

"Mississippi State has become the loudest stadium in America. They get those cowbells ringing about three hours before kickoff out in the parking lots. You go through a game there, you come out of there and you can't hear for about a day and a half. It is unbelievable."
– Pat Forde, Yahoo Sports on Dan Patrick Show (8.22.17)

"Mississippi State was truly incredible. If I was to rank the SEC Nation shows and experiences this year, Mississippi State is No. 1. You cannot find a square inch of open grass (in the Junction). The loudest fans we have heard so far in college football this year."
– Joe Tessitore, SEC Network (10.23.14)

"When there is a big game at Davis Wade, I'd put that atmosphere up against anything in college football. You gotta see it to believe it."
–John Hayes, The Athletic (9.19.17)

"Want to know what a revolution sounds like? Between the third and fourth quarter, Journey's "Don't Stop Believin'" blares through the stadium speakers. The throng rings cowbells to the beat, creating a deafening roar as they try to hold on to the feeling."
– Pete Thamel, Sports Illustrated (10.10.14)

"The weekend in Starkville was one of the most electric and extraordinary I've ever experienced covering the Southeastern Conference. I have never seen anything quite like this in my 35 years of covering college football. We could spend the rest of our lives trying to top that show."
– Paul Finebaum, SEC Network

DAVIS WADE STADIUM AT SCOTT FIELD

"The loudest game I have ever attended – start to finish – even postgame. You haven't lived until you've heard 'Don't Stop Believing' with accompaniment from 50,000 cowbells."
– Stewart Mandel, Fox Sports (10.11.14)

"Furthermore, Scott Field had become a virtual noise factory, louder than ever and that is really loud. You could not hear the guy next to you even when he was yelling."
– Rick Cleveland, Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame writer (11.11.17)

"Poor you. You spent Saturday somewhere other than Mississippi. I'm sorry. You didn't get goose bumps from a late-morning Starkville din so loud it seemed set to jar loose the Mississippi-Alabama borderline and hurl it nearer Tuscaloosa."
– Chuck Culpepper, Washington Post (10.5.14)

"These are the most genuine, authentic fans in America."
– Paul Finebaum, SEC Network, on the Nov. 14, 2015 SEC Nation show

"The environment Saturday at Davis Wade Stadium was as electric as any college sporting event you're ever going to find. It was the loudest stadium I've ever been in and it wasn't just the cowbells. It was an awesome environment all the way around and great people."
– Chris Low, ESPN.com (10.11.14)

"To all those Bulldog fans shining those cell phone flashlights and signing along to Don't Stop Believin', they make Davis Wade Stadium the most fun place to watch a football game in the SEC."
– Kevin Scarbinsky, AL.com (11.14.15)

"Alabama at Mississippi State last year was the loudest stadium I've ever been in."
– Greg McElroy, ESPN (Summer 2018)

"Anyone with noise sensitivity needs to beware before entering Davis Wade Stadium. Pack earplugs and noise-canceling headphones for small children. Because it's going to be loud."
– Alex Scarborough, ESPN (Summer 2019)

MSU opened the 2014 season against Southern Miss in a 49-0 win and 61,889 people were on hand to see the dynamically improved Davis Wade Stadium.

DAVIS WADE STADIUM AT SCOTT FIELD

Capacity: 61,337

Head coach Joe Moorhead and the Mississippi State Bulldogs return to the raucous atmosphere of Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field in 2019 in the midst of a span that has seen 26 wins over the last 35 home games. The Bulldogs posted a 6-1 record at home during Moorhead's first year at the helm of the program. The six wins at home were the most since 2014, a year in which MSU tied the single-season school record for home victories with a 7-0 mark en route to the program's first No. 1 national ranking.

All of the top 20 crowds in stadium history have come during the last five seasons of competition.

Christened after Olympic sprinter Don Magruder Scott, one of State's first football superstars, the 104-year-old historic facility (the nation's second-oldest FBS campus football stadium) has undergone seven renovation and expansion projects during its history. The first game at Scott Field came with an MSU win over Marion (Ala.) Military Institute, 54-0, on Oct. 3, 1914.

More than $100 million in football projects have been initiated in the last few years. Of that figure, $75 million of it went towards the nationally praised 2014 expansion.

The latest addition of note was a new, state-of-the art locker room in the north end zone of Davis Wade Stadium, which was completed in August 2018. The locker room, which housed the Bulldogs for the first time during the 2018 season, features 11,100 square-feet of space and includes custom-built lockers, separate coach and staff locker rooms, an expansive athletic training room, as well as an equipment room.

The players' locker room features high-gloss metal panel ceiling, color-changing LED linear lighting, internally lit ceiling logos and a state-of-the-art sound system. In addition, a new recruiting lounge spanning over 3,000 square feet is adjacent to the locker room. The previous home locker room in the south end zone now serves as the visiting team locker room.

The $3.6 million project was privately funded through the Bulldog Club. LPK Architects was the project's architect. ICM was the construction manager, and Copeland and Johns served as the general contractor.

Completed in August 2014, the north end zone expansion increased capacity to 61,337, provided additional premium seating, elevators, restrooms and concessions along with a completely new west side concourse. Construction began in August 2012.

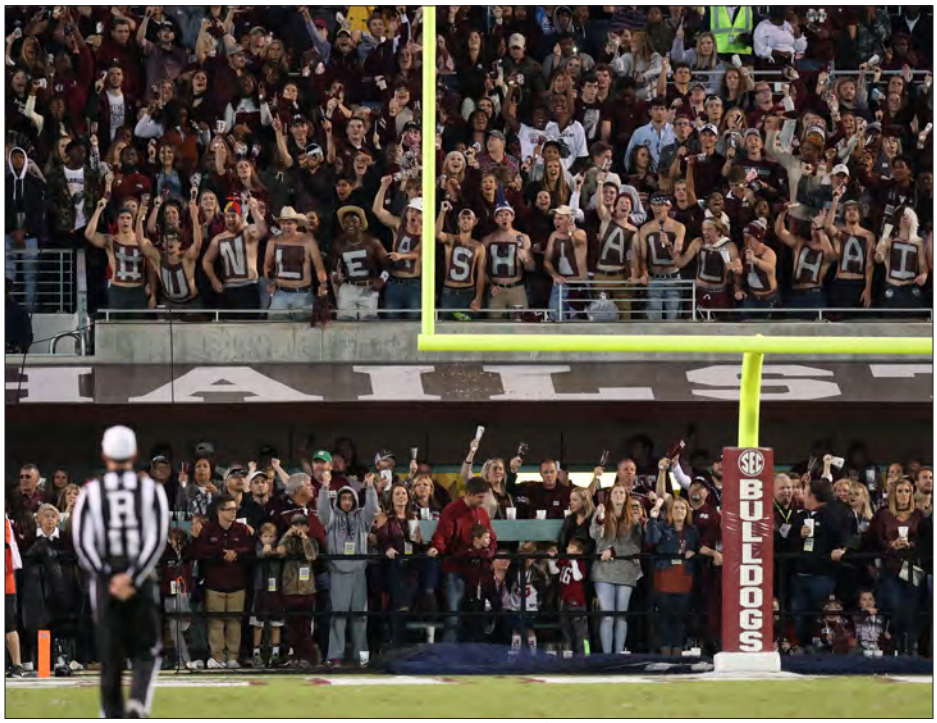
The construction contract for the project was awarded to the Harrell Contracting Group of Jackson, Mississippi. Harrell won the construction project in a university sealed bid process.

The north end zone addition created a total of 8,815 new seats, which, factored with the loss of the previously existing bleacher seating in the north end zone, resulted in a net 6,255-seat increase. Included in those 8,815 seats were 7,076 grandstand seats, 1,155 Scoreboard Club seats, 236 loge seats, 22 traditional suites, totaling approximately 288 seats, and 60 field-level suite seats. Additionally, standing room availability and ADA-compliant seating were also included in the project.

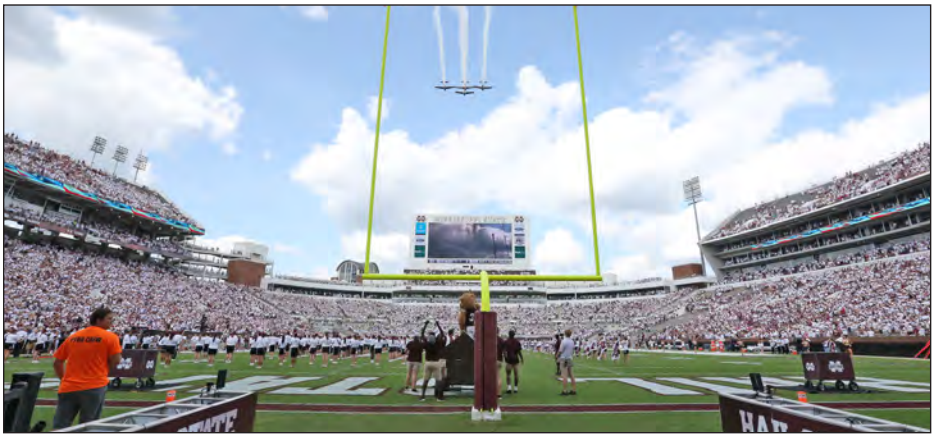
Also included in the north end zone is a non-seated, field level premium area, The Gridiron, which provides club-like amenities to any season ticket holder who buys a membership regardless of that person's stadium seat location. The new area has become a fan favorite as the Bulldogs sing the alma mater and take a victory lap in front of The Gridiron.

The north end also features a high-definition video board similar in size to the one currently standing on the stadium's south end, which is among the largest in college football.

The west side renovation showcases a rebuilt concourse under the west stands, the addition of four high-capacity elevators, an increase in restroom and concession point of sale facilities and a brick facade that matches the new construction on the north side.



The new North End Zone and Gridiron Club were part of a $75 million Davis Wade Stadium expansion completed in 2014 that increased capacity by over 6,000.



In 2014, fans saw the number of elevators at Davis Wade Stadium more than double (from five to 12), the restroom fixture total nearly double (from 313 to 621), and permanent concession point of sale positions increase by over 40 percent (from 110 to 156).

For media, the project included a new television compound away from the stadium propriety. The TV compound is now located west of the stadium, allowing network broadcast trucks to connect to stadium equipment via underground cable runs.
The renovation and expansion was funded by the sale of $68 million in bonds and $7 million in private giving. Private contributions for the stadium project were part of the Bulldog Club's "Today. Tomorrow. Forever" Athletics Facilities Initiative, which is completely independent of annual giving and priority seating donations.

Construction and renovation design for the Davis Wade Stadium expansion and renovation was handled by local architect LPK of Meridian, Mississippi, along with national sports consultants 360 Architecture of Kansas City. The design team engineered the north end zone facility to support future expansion of approximately 5,000 seats, including 22 additional suites and an upper deck.

The 2014 renovation and expansion came on the heels of installing $1.4 million LED ribbon boards in the summer of 2011. The project, funded by the Bulldog Club, is located on the upper deck facades on the east and west sides, and brings fans in-game graphics, scores, stats and other pertinent information to improve the gameday experience.

One of the most talked about features at Davis Wade, however, is one of college football's largest high-definition video boards, located in the south end zone of the stadium. The $6.1 million true HD board spans the roof of the Leo Seal M-Club Center in the south end zone at Scott Field. The board measures 152 feet wide by 135 feet, 6 inches tall, with a main HD screen 111 feet wide by 47 feet high.

The previous expansion came in the summer of 2000 and raised capacity to 55,082 with the addition of 50 skyboxes and 1,700 club-level seats. The expansion continued into the 2001 season with the addition of 7,000 upper-deck seats. The entire project, completed at a cost in excess of $30 million, was made possible, in large part, by a financial commitment from the late Floyd Davis Wade Sr., of Meridian, Mississippi, for whom the stadium itself is now named.

Earlier building efforts in 1936 and 1948 brought capacity at Scott Field to 35,000 seats and provided the basic concrete grandstand structure (35 years after the 1948 expansion, the end zone seating structures were removed, lowering the capacity to 32,000 in 1983). But after 25 years, Scott Field was ready for another facelift and an expanded seating potential for the school's growing following.

A $7.2 million drive in 1986, spearheaded by former MSU athletic director Carl Maddox and an active group of university and community leaders, financed the addition of 9,000 seats to Scott Field's capacity without the use of appropriated state funding. A 5,500-seat upper deck, an additional 1,700 chair back seats that extend from the stadium's original structure, and another 1,000 chair back seats flanking the Bob Hartley Press Box on the second level were added to the west side. Two 1,700-seat sections were added to the east side stands to bring capacity to 40,656.

Earning a reputation of being one of the nation's toughest places to play, the facility has been host to average attendances in excess of 55,000 the last six seasons. In fact, the last 10 years have seen the largest cumulative totals in the stadium's history.

In 2011, the program watched as each game recorded a then top-15 all-time attendance mark at Davis Wade Stadium, including 57,871 against Alabama (second) and 56,924 vs. LSU (then fourth). The 335,695 total fans to watch a game in Starkville was then the highest ever for a six-game schedule at the venue.

State fans broke the school record for total attendance again in 2013 with 389,868 total fans, including a seven-game record average of 55,695. On Nov. 16, 2013, 57,211 people wrapped in Maroon and White attended the Alabama game, the fourth-largest crowd in school history.

During the memorable 2014 campaign, the first in the new expansion, MSU set attendance records for single-season total attendance (427,892), single-game average attendance (61,127) and single-game attendance (62,945). The 2014 Bulldogs also tied the school record for home wins as their 7-0 mark matched the 1999 team. The seven home victories also helped State to the first 10-win regular season in program history.

MSU broke total attendance (432,490) and single-game average attendance (61,784) for the third straight year in 2015. That year, the Bulldogs eclipsed 50,000 in season ticket sales for the first time in program history. The previous high for season ticket sales was 45,575 in 2014, and prior to that was 43,894 in 2013.

National media have proclaimed the new north end zone expansion makes Davis Wade Stadium arguably the noisiest from start to finish in college football. A sea of Maroon and White in The Junction turned out for the first-ever SEC Nation broadcast in Starkville on the SEC Network prior to State's thumping of Texas A&M on Oct. 4, 2014. One week later, ESPN College GameDay made its first appearance in Starkville as No. 3 MSU battled No. 2 Auburn in a matchup of the highest ranked teams in the stadium's history. ESPN personality Lee Corso donned a Bulldog mascot head to a roar from the crowd. Hours later, MSU topped Auburn, 38-23, before a record crowd of 62,945 in the loudest game in school history. The victory ascended the program to its first No. 1 national ranking.

Scott Field's playing surface, which hosted 16-straight home victories from 1998 to 2000, is lush Hybrid Bermuda Grass (Certified Tifway 419), complete with a brand-new underground drainage and irrigation system. The field is encircled by a holly-lined sideline fence and end zone landscaping.

Entering the 2019 season, a total of 10,442,019 Bulldog fans have entered the turnstiles at Davis Wade Stadium since 1970.

On Oct. 11, 2014, No. 3 MSU hosted No. 2 Auburn and set a Davis Wade Stadium attendance record of 62,945 as the Bulldogs downed the Tigers, 38-23, with ESPN's College GameDay on hand for the first time.

DAVIS WADE STADIUM AT SCOTT FIELD

TIMELINE HISTORY OF SCOTT FIELD

1914 – Mississippi A&M's football field moves to its current stadium location and is called the "New Athletic Field."

1920 – Student body adopts a resolution name the field Scott Field in honor of Don Scott, famed Olympic runner and Bulldog football standout from 1915-16.

1928 – Permanent seating for 3,000 fans is built on the west side of Scott Field at a cost of $15,000. In addition portable stands are placed on the east side of the field with a similar capacity.

1936 – Construction begins on concrete stands on the west side with Works Progress Administration labor. The new concrete facility will seat 8,000, while bleachers on the east side and in the end zone bring capacity to 20,000.

1948 – Scott Field is enlarged to 35,000 by increasing the west side concrete stands to 15,000 and the construction of 12,000 concrete seats on the east side of the stadium.

1983 – End zone seating structures are removed, reducing capacity to 32,000.

1986 – A $7.2 million expansion occurs, adding 9,000 seats to Scott Field's west side, including a 5,500-seat upper deck, 1,700 chairback seats extending from the stadium's original structure, and another 1,000 chairbacks flanking the press box. Two 1,700-seat sections are also added to the west side stands, bringing total capacity to 40,656.

1999 – Plans are announced for the largest expansion project in stadium history. A $30-million effort, backed largely by longtime MSU supporter Davis Wade, will add an estimated 10,500 seats and 50 luxury skyboxes, bringing total capacity to approximately 55,000 by the 2002 season. The new stadium, when completed, is renamed Davis Wade Stadium at Scott Field.

2005 – Permanent end zone seating replaces temporary bleacher seating at the north end of the stadium, bringing official capacity to 55,082.

2012 - Construction begins on a $75-million expansion of the north end zone and the renovation of the west side concourse, bringing official capacity to 61,337 by the start of the 2014 season.

2014 - In a 49-0 win over Southern Miss on Saturday, Aug. 30, MSU celebrates 100 years of Scott Field and officially opens the new north end zone expansion before a record crowd of 61,889. The record would later be broken that season when Auburn came to town.

2018 - In August, a new, state-of-the art locker room in the north end zone is created.

AGE BEFORE BEAUTY

In 2014, MSU celebrated 100 years of Scott Field in conjunction with the expansion and renovation of Davis Wade Stadium, which was originally built in 1914. Scott Field is the second-oldest stadium in FBS behind Georgia Tech's Bobby Dodd Stadium.

OLDEST STADIUMS IN COLLEGE FOOTBALL

	Stadium	School	Built	Location

2.	Harvard Stadium	Harvard	1903	Boston, Mass.
3.	Bobby Dodd	Georgia Tech	1913	Atlanta, Ga.
4.	Yale Bowl	Yale	1913	New Haven, Conn.

While it may be one of the oldest in college football, it is in no way outdated. The $75-million renovation and expansion that was completed in 2014 makes it the only stadium among the top five oldest in FBS to be expanded since 2005.

PACKED HOUSE

MSU is second nationally in percentage of average attendance increase in the last 10 years based on stadiums over 60,000 capacity. In 2004, State's average attendance was 43,792, while in 2014 it was 61,127, marking a percentage increase of 39.6. MSU trails only Texas A&M, which saw a 41.1 percentage increase from 2004-14.

State ranked ninth among FBS teams in largest average attendance increase from the previous year with a jump from 55,695 in 2013 to 61,127 in 2014 - a change in average of 5,432.
